

CUBA FORGETS RECENT WARS

Compact Between Republic And England Is Up For Island Senate's Consideration.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS BUSY

Minister Squires Is Ordered To Do Everything In His Power To Bring About Its Defeat On The Vote.

Washington, Oct. 11.—An ugly complication which may necessitate heroic treatment has just come to the notice of the state department through the publication of a secret treaty between Great Britain and Cuba. The instrument has been formally signed by the Cuban secretary of state and the British minister at Havana and only needs to be ratified by the Cuban senate to become effective.

Mr. Squires, United States minister to Cuba, has received pre-emptory orders from Secretary Root to oppose the ratification of the treaty, but whether he will be successful in preventing the senate from taking favorable action can only be conjectured. Mr. Squires himself was engaged in negotiating a treaty which would confer special privileges on American ships engaged in the Cuban trade when the publication of the treaty with Great Britain warned him that he had a formidable rival in that field of endeavor. The British treaty creates a contract guaranteeing reciprocal freedom of commerce and navigation and practically abrogates the existing right to arrange between the United States and Cuba for reciprocal remission of export duties, because Great Britain must, by the terms of article 3, be accorded equal privileges.

Many Special Privileges.

Article 5 of the treaty practically extends unlimited privileges to the great English fleet of traders in Cuban waters and its ratification would mean annihilation to the plan of the administration to secure desirable terms for American ships. The most menacing and unfortunate feature of the treaty is found in article 8, in which occurs the Spanish word "per-trecharse," which, it is claimed, means "to reft with munitions of war." Obviously the purpose of the article is to extend to Great Britain the right of haven for her ships of war in time of war.

Article 12, interpreted in connection with article 8, clearly accords Great Britain the right to manufacture arms and munitions of war in certain designated Cuban ports. This right is now enjoyed by the United States only at specified coaling stations. The disposition of the state department is to interpose harsh measures, if necessary, to prevent the ratification of the treaty.

Senate Makes Mistake.

Senator Cullom, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, said that the action of the Cuban administration was so amazing as to appear incredible.

"It proves," said the senator, "that the American senate was guilty of an egregious blunder when it consented to accept the Teller amendment which made the independence of Cuba mandatory. The United States should not have surrendered possession of the island. I think no level-headed man will dispute this assertion. It was a tactical and international blunder. Many of us voted for the Teller amendment, what amounted to dress at the time, believing that a state of affairs such as now confronts this government was certain to arise. I am sure that congress will never consent to such a treaty as the one which has been promulgated in Havana becoming effective, and the Cubans had better look out."

The Czar—I hope you won't hang around this show of mine and interrupt the performance. The Czar has issued a call for a second peace conference.—News Item.

ARREST YOUNG MEN FOR CRIMES EIGHT YRS. AGO COMMITTED

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]
Lima, O., Oct. 11.—Thomas K. Wilkins, Jr., son of a banker, and Elijah Bowsher were arrested, accused of the robbery of the American National bank in this city in 1898, of which crime at the time Cashier Gus Kalb and N. L. Michael were accused and made good the eighteen thousand dollars stolen. Also judgments were rendered against them in slander suits brought by Wilkins and Bowsher. Kalb says he spent twenty-two thousand dollars trying to unravel the mystery. The prosecuting attorney says he has secured evidence, mostly from Wilkins' divorced wife, and a convict.

NO COMPROMISE WITH ABSCONDERS WANTED

Bankers May Request Constitutional Amendment to Deal More Severely with Criminals.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, Oct. 11.—The American Bankers' Association settled down to work this morning when the address of welcome was delivered to the delegates on behalf of the District of Columbia by Henry B. McFarland, president of the District Board of Commissioners. The bankers of the district gave their welcome through John Jay Wilson, the local president. These were followed by the response and annual address of President E. F. Swinney and the secretary and treasurer's reports. Unusual interest is manifested in the address of Frank A. Vanderlip, first vice-president of the National City Bank of New York, whose forecast of financial conditions during the past few years has made his every remark on the subject of vital interest.

THREE WIVES ALL IN SAME BUILDING IS A NEW STORY

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]
New York, Oct. 11.—Accused of having had three young wives simultaneously in the same flat building, Robert Benicker, aged 25, was arraigned this morning on complaints made by two. The third was passed by him as his sister to the other two. The two claim they supplied him money for the other to travel on.

LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]
Special Meeting
Stockholm, Oct. 11.—A special committee of the Riksdag today reported favoring the ratification of the Norwegian treaty.

Gold Shipments
Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 11.—Shipments of gold from the Yukon country this season are six millions.

Royal Wedding
Gleichenburg, Oct. 11.—Duke Carl Edward, ruler of Saxe-Coburg Gotha, was married today to Princess Victoria Adelaide.

Bad Weather
Philadelphia, Oct. 11.—On account of the inclement weather the Philadelphia-New York baseball game was called off.

Adjourn Investigation
New York, Oct. 11.—The insurance investigation has adjourned to next Tuesday out of respect for the memory of the Speaker Nixon of the New York assembly.

Mrs. Shonts In Europe.
London, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Theodore P. Shonts, wife of the chairman of the Panama Canal Commission, accompanied by her daughters, Misses Marguerite and Theodora, arrived here today. Mrs. Shonts hopes to return to Washington for a part of the social season, but the young ladies will remain through the winter putting the finishing touches on their education. Both attended a finishing school in Washington last winter. They will probably be presented to society next year.

Hot Springs Tourney.
Hot Springs, Va., Oct. 11.—The annual fall tournament of the Virginia Hot Springs Golf Club, open to all members of clubs in the United States Gold Association began here today and will continue until Saturday. A number of noted players will compete.

ADDICKS' PROPERTY SOLD UNDER HAMMER

Ill-Famed Politician of New Jersey Loses Four Farms of Sheriff's Sale.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Wilmington, Del., Oct. 11.—United States Marshal Flinn will hold today and tomorrow an auction sale of the personal property of J. Edward Addicks, the famous politician, who has had more or less of a hard time lately. The sale is to satisfy a judgment of $45,000 recently obtained against Addicks by Charles S. Hinchman, of Camden, N. J., and under which Addicks' personal property on four farms in the State was levied upon.

POSSIBLY NO GREAT BREAK WILL OCCUR

Roosevelt and Senate's Diverging Opinions May Not Cause Split Among Republicans.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, Oct. 11.—While much talk is heard on all sides regarding the annual message of President Roosevelt, which is almost completed, a high government official remarked today that there is a greater disposition on the part of politicians not to believe that there will be a break between Roosevelt and congress this winter over the rate question. This does not mean that the Chief Executive is any the less determined to frame some measure by which one of the chief evils of the country can be remedied, but it is rather believed that he has won a number of opponents to his side who could pretty well control things in the Senate. The House, under Speaker Cannon's lead is counted with the President, so whatever opposition his views might meet are expected to be encountered in the senate.

RAILROADS OBEY IN PROSPEROUS TIMES

In Hard Times Weak Lines Break Laws and Stronger Are Forced To Follow Suit.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Chicago, Ill., Oct. 11.—Discussing the President's views on the rate question a prominent railroad man who is president of one of the great systems and a director in several other boards said: "It is easy nowadays for the railroads to obey the law, because they are prosperous, but it is difficult if any law could make them refrain from doing so when it comes to a survival of the fittest. Then the weakest begin to break the law, and that leads all others in the same direction. What is needed, and what I hope will be provided in the President's message, is a law that will enable the railroads that wish to obey the law to compel the others to do so or else go out of business."

FT. ATKINSON HAS A MIDNIGHT MARAUDER

Breaks Into Stores and Secures Small Plunder for His Trouble.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
St. Atkinson, Oct. 11.—Burglars effected an entrance into Wickie Bros. grocery Monday evening and secured about twenty dollars in cash. They attempted to enter H. J. Dixheimer & Co.'s drugstore, but Henry Dixheimer was at work in the building, heard the noise and frightened them away. The McAllister Dry-Goods Co.'s store was also entered but nothing taken. The thieves left no clues.

FEVER REGION GETS ITS DESIRED FROST

Fight on Yellow Jack Being Abandoned—Madison and La Crosse Had Flurries Like Janesville.
[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]
New Orleans, La., Oct. 11.—The long-desired frost appeared as far south as Fort Smith, Ark., last night. Arrangements are now being completed to abandon the fight on yellow fever, which will be completely stopped by the frost. The fumigating and quarantine employees are being dismissed.

At La Crosse
La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 11.—The first snow of the season fell today.

At Madison
Madison, Wis., Oct. 11.—Flurries of snow here this morning.

Snow at Superior
Superior, Wis., Oct. 11.—Snow fell for an hour on Lake Superior today.

Lawrence, Kas., Oct. 11.—Vegetation was damaged by frost.

Mountain Lake, Minn., Oct. 11.—A hard snow-storm occurred here this morning.

ARRESTED MURDERER OF OTTO LILLQUIST

Man Killed Last Summer—Murderer Arrested in Houghton Today.
[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]
Houghton, Mich., Oct. 11.—Otto Lillquist has been arrested here on the charge of murdering August Naima in a quarrel. Both men were giant lumberjacks and the brother of one committed suicide as a result of the tragedy.

What It Teaches Us.
To watch the lives of those in a monastery is like looking at a large shop laden with silver and gold and precious things. It teaches us how many things we can do without.—Bishop of Richmond.

Difference in the Hands.
The right hand, in the matter of touch, is more sensitive than the left, but less sensitive in the matter of heat and cold.

GOULD FACTION HAS TAKEN THE LEADERS

Elect Six Directors From Slate Chosen Yesterday at Conference.
Toledo, Oct. 11.—The Gould faction of bondholders in the Wabash railroad this morning elected six directors, the nominations which were made yesterday by the following who were chosen: Thomas M. Hubbard, E. T. Jeffers, John T. Terry, Winslow Hirsch, Robert Galloway and Edgar T. Wells.

BRITISH STEAMER HIT SUBMERGED MINE

Fifteen Passengers and the Crew Are Reported Missing—German Boat Seized.
[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]
Tokio, Oct. 11.—A Miji telegram says the British steamer Lcho struck a mine on September 29th and sunk. Fifteen passengers and the crew are missing, two being European engineers. The Japanese cruisers have seized the Knustruve and Hans Wagner, German steamers bound for Vladivostok, carrying contraband of war.

GENERAL WESTEN SUCCEEDS RANDALL

Janesville Man's Place as Head of Northern Military Division of Army Is Filled.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, Oct. 11.—Brigadier-General John F. Westen was today made a Major-General, succeeding Major-General George M. Randall. Gen. Westen has an enviable record as Commissary-General of the Army. He has been assigned to command the Northern Military Division, with headquarters at St. Louis. Gen. Westen has the reputation of being one of the best-informed men in the army in regard to military history and is immensely popular.

KAUKAUNA MOB IS TOO WEAK KNEED

Promised to Do Things But Backed Down When the Time Really Came.
[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]
Kaukauna, Wis., Oct. 11.—Guarded by a body of police and sheriff's deputies, Wenzel Kabot, the alleged murderer of Michael McCarty, was brought here this morning for a hearing. A mob of several hundred citizens gathered at Appleton to lynch the man but lacked a leader. Dozens of arrests were made on the charge of disturbing the peace. All the factories were forced to close because the working-men had joined the mob. Read the want ads.

MORE POSTOFFICES ROBBED NEAR SPARTA

Three Little Offices of Stoddard Cashton and Wilton Looted Last Night.
[SPECIAL BY SCRIPTS-M'RAE.]
Sparta, Wis., Oct. 11.—Following the burglaries at Stoddard and Cashton, near here, the postoffice at Wilton was robbed last night and four hundred dollars taken.

Wants Universal 2-Cent Postage.
London, Oct. 11.—John Heaniker Heaton, known as the "father of the imperial penny postage," established in 1899, published a strong plea for a universal 2-cent postage. He said it costs 5 cents to send a letter twenty-one miles to France and only 2 cents to send one 11,000 miles to the Fiji Islands, a "glaring anomaly that cannot be defended."

Unselfishness of Good Manners.
Good manners mean good heart, for it stands to reason that one can't be doing things for others, the little things that go to make life easy, rub off the rough places and make life more comfortable for others, unless others be thought of before one's self.—Chicago American.

It Is Quite True—
That some people sneer at love in a cottage, but love that could wish to live anywhere else is not love.

Want ads bring results.

ON REAL FACTS OF THE TAX-ROLL

ALD. FRANK H. JACKMAN SPOKE LAST EVENING.

EIGHTY PER CENT IS BASIS

Despite Law and the Tax Commission—Factories Assessed Still Less and Public Sentiment Approves.

In a discussion of the subject "Taxation," before the Twilight Club last evening, Alderman Frank Jackman submitted some very interesting statistics and deductions therefrom to the consideration of his hearers. He showed that despite law and tax commissions some forms of property are assessed on a basis of 80 per cent of the true valuation; others, particularly public utility companies' holdings, banks, real-estate, etc., bear the heaviest burden. Some very instructive comparisons with other cities of the state in the matter of disbursements and salary lists, as well as assessments and tax rates were offered. The text in full follows:

No Generalization Possible.
This subject was given, as I understand it, with the hope that it would be possible to make a comparison either to Janesville's advantage or disadvantage with other cities in our state. The leader wished to discover whether or not our city was handicapped by her tax rate in the race with the other thriving municipalities of Wisconsin. I have given the subject some attention and I can come to no conclusion. I do not think we are getting any the worst of it. It is easy to get the tax rate in different cities and also the assessment, but there we encounter our first obstacle. The assessment throughout the state has never been uniform and now after years of work that the tax commission has spent there is no certainty that there has been any improvement. There is no doubt that the work of the commission has been in the right direction. They have each year raised the assessed valuation in nearly every county of the state and their written instructions to the assessors have always been to assess at actual value. As a matter of fact this has been the law for years.

Eighty Per Cent Is Basis.

You all know that assessments have been raised in Janesville in the last few years and the intent of the assessors, as they frankly state, has been this year to assess property at 80 per cent of its true value. This is true of Janesville, but there is no possible way to discover without endless investigation what the intent is in other cities. Were an investigation made I doubt whether the result, even then, would tally with the intent of the assessors. Such is the fallibility of human judgment, and the power of conservatism.

Factories Are Favored

When a manufacturer moves to a city his concern is not with his taxes on his home or his unimproved real estate but with his manufacturing plant, and it is the universal custom in all cities to be exceedingly conservative in assessing manufacturing plants. Janesville factories are not assessed at 80 per cent of their valuation and neither is it done in other cities in this matter. I do not know of a comparison of the figures does not help us. In most cases it would appear that our manufacturers are treated as well as they could expect, yet it is not possible to discover how much more they are favored in other cities.

Comparison of Cities.

For purposes of comparison the figures of last year are just as valuable as those of this and those of 1904 are accessible, so I will use them. Janesville's assessed valuation was almost nine million with a tax of $1.05 on a hundred. Appleton with about 4,000 more population was assessed 10 million and her tax is higher—$1.75. Ashland, a city very nearly our size, was assessed low—$7,600,000, but her tax was high—$2.75. Beloit with an assessed valuation of $6,000,000 paid a tax of $1.75. Beloit we all believe was assessed too low, but as a large part of her value is in manufacturing property, which is no doubt assessed low, there may lie the explanation.

Beloit's Expenses Lower.

However, Beloit's tax rate was higher and Beloit was more economically managed in many respects than Janesville. For instance, Beloit's police department costs $1,500 a year less than ours; her fire department, $1,000 less; her hydrant rental, $1,500 more, and her lighting expense was over $6,000 less. Beloit's tax levy was only $117,000 against ours of last year which was $146,000. Fond du Lac, some larger than Janesville, was assessed $11,700,000 and the tax rate was $1.60. Green Bay was assessed $11,800,000 and the tax rate was $1.61. Eau Claire with a very low assessment of about $7,000,000, evened it up with a high rate of $3.34. Kenosha, assessed at $11,000,000, had the low rate of $1.30. La Crosse, assessed at $13,000,000, had a rate of $1.80. Madison, assessed $20,000,000, had the same low rate as Kenosha—$1.30. Marinette, assessed $6,000,000, had a rate of $2.50.

Assessment Low, Rate High.

It seems to be the fact that where the assessment was clearly low the rate was high. Oshkosh, assessed $17,700,000, had a rate of $1.80. Racine, assessed $17,000,000 had the same low rate as Kenosha and Madison—$1.30. Superior, with the ridiculously low assessment of $12,300,000, had the highest rate of all—$2.96. Four cities have a lower assessment than Janesville: Ashland, Beloit, Eau Claire, and Marinette; and five have a lower tax rate: Fond du Lac, Green Bay, Kenosha, Madison and Racine.

Expenses Compared.

None have a lower school expense although Green Bay and Marinette have a lower expense per scholar. No city pays its assessors as little as does Janesville. Beloit and Kenosha only pay less for their fire department than we do. Beloit and Marinette, only, manage their police department as economically as does Janesville. No city among those mentioned pays so little for hydrant rental as we do. Five out of the fourteen compared pay more for lighting than we do. Six pay the Mayor a salary ranging from $2 a meeting in Kenosha to $1,500 a year in Superior.

Salaries For Aldermen.

Four pay hard working aldermen a salary, and I want to say here that judging from the little experience I have had, I think they ought to have it. Seven pay their city attorney more, and two, only, pay the chief of the fire department more. These last two comparisons were a surprise to me as I had thought that those officials certainly earned their money. No further comparisons were possible with the figures at hand on account of lack of uniformity in book-keeping in various cities. These figures are taken from the report of the society of the Eau Claire Commercial association and I have used them because they were in convenient form and accessible. I will not be responsible for them but it is a fair presumption that they are correct. They do not prove anything but to me they are interesting.

Local Assessments vs. Ratings.

In order that we may judge whether or not our manufacturers are treated fairly I have some comparisons to make on our own city. The New Doty Mfg. Co. is assessed $8,000 and it is rated at $27,000. Thoroughgood & Co. is assessed $16,000 and rated $62,000. The Parker Pen Co. is assessed $18,500, rated $87,000. The Lewis Knitting Co., $21,000, rated $62,000. Choate Hollister Co., $12,400, rated $42,000. The Hough Shade Corporation is assessed $10,000 and rated $62,000. The Hohmann Co., $18,000, rated $87,000. Howe Bros., $12,500, rated $42,000. Janesville Sash and Door Co., $6,100, rated $42,000. Janesville Machine Co., $100,000, rated $235,000. Janesville Barb Wire Co., $30,000, rated $125,000.

Buildings And Residences.

Against these I have the assessments of some well-known buildings of the public utility companies and of a few stocks of goods. The building of the Hares Bros. on Main street is assessed at $65,000 as is the Jackman building opposite. L. B. Carle's building at the corner of River and Milwaukee streets is assessed at $28,000. Geo. G. Sutherland's seven stores on the bridge are assessed $42,000. G. C. Sutherland's house is assessed $10,000 as is also C. S. Jackman's residence, and Geo. McKee's is a little over $11,000. The house just sold by P. C. Sullivan for $7,750, in the 3rd ward, is assessed $1,000.

Dry Goods And Tobacco.

The stock of J. M. Bostwick & Sons is assessed $50,000; Archie Reid & Co., $17,150; and Bert Bailey & Co., $18,700. Tobacco is assessed $10 a case for binders and $2 for fillers. We should consider the tobacco packers as manufacturers and it appears they have been so treated by the assessors. The Gas company is assessed $200,000 and is rated $620,000. The Water company is assessed $150,000 and is rated $175,000 and the Electric company is assessed $40,000 and rated $57,000. These figures indicate that the public utility companies, and improved real estate are assessed generally at at least eighty per cent of their true value. Manufacturing interests are clearly assessed very much lower, and personal property is reached only occasionally.

Guided By Public Sentiment.

The assessors are guided almost wholly by public sentiment. Law cuts no figure and it did it would drive manufacturing interests out of the state. The public likes to see its assessment of state and county taxes. Our supervisors haven't done very well for us in this line. The public wants factories and they cannot be had if taxes are too high. It is illegal, but self-preservation forces such a policy. Public utilities and banks are unpopular, so the assessors raise their assessment. Personal property cannot easily be reached. The assessor is poorly paid so he lets that go. Then, too, he is backed by a growing public sentiment, voiced by the tax commission, which argues that personal property, intangible personal property, should be exempted by law. Real estate is where the most careful assessment is made. As I said in the beginning these figures prove nothing but they indicate that the manufacturer who wishes to engage in business here will find no enemy in the assessor nor the public sentiment behind him.

In General Discussion.

In a general discussion which followed the reading of Mr. Jackman's paper the question was raised as to whether or not taxes were really higher in Janesville than in large cities such as Chicago. George Sutcliffe, upon being called upon to answer this question, said that he and Hiram Merrill, both of whom are largely interested in Janesville and Chicago property, had compared notes on one occasion and had found that the taxes paid here, taken in connection with the value of the property, its income, etc., were about twice the magnitude of those paid in the great metropolis. This was to be expected as the smaller city must in comparison bear a much larger expense in the maintenance of its departments than the larger one, while its taxable values, far from being proportionately larger, were smaller to a degree all out of proportion.

Head of Equalization.

Supervisor of Assessments, Frank P. Starr said that while the tax commission might not have wrought as many changes as some could desire, he thought that it might report progress. With regard to his own work he could say that an effort had been made, and that the factories in the city of Beloit had been well equalized. A number had been raised several thousands of dollars. Factories in Janesville had been assessed about the same year after year and had practically assessed themselves. The speaker did not think there would be any objection interposed to raising some of them. What was true of the factories here was also true of the real estate. The latter, in general, was high enough but it needed equalizing. A large amount was assessed at about what it would sell for, but a large amount was not. More satisfactory results, he believed, would be obtained by having an assessor in each ward. It would cost no more and the work could be done much more carefully. Merchandise had been equalized in a very satisfactory manner in Beloit and an effort had been made here. Equal taxation could not be expected without equal assessment and two men were unable to attend to this properly in the time allotted.

No Race Suicide Here.

After suggesting race-suicide, imperfect census gathering, and other theories as possible solutions of the small-increase-in-Janesville problem, Leader Wortendyke imposed an absolute ten-minute limit on H. J. Cunningham, who was to speak on "The Census." The speaker acknowledged that there was good grounds for fear that he might trespass on time with so exalting a subject. It was almost as exciting as Webster's Unabridged. In 1890 the total population of Janesville had been 12,135 and that same year the school census showed 3,545. In 1905 the total population of the city was 13,771 and the school census was 4,036. The race suicide theory, obviously, could not be applied, when the increase of children was nearly 500 as compared with the total increase of 556. Twenty-six per cent of the population equaled an estimate made on the same basis; this year, the city would have 15,012. Either the census roll was padded in 1900 or it was incomplete this year, or it correct in both instances there must have been a small army of the unemployed within the city's limits five years ago. There were none of this class now.

Prosperity Increased Anyhow.

The city's growth in prosperity was evident in the $123,000 increase in bank deposits and the $405,000 increase in loans since 1900. In place of two manufacturing concerns that had disappeared there were ten new ones, employing 178 additional workers, with a pay roll of $230,000. The sugar and canning factories were not included in these statistics because the employees were largely recruited from other factories during certain seasons of the year. The thirty or more other manufacturing concerns were employing 350 more people than they did in 1900 and their pay-rolls had increased in the aggregate $100,000. Altogether Janesville factories were paying for labor in 1905 a total of $410,000 more than they did in 1900.

Sugar Factory a Big Item.

One concern which had located here since 1900—the Rock County Sugar Co.—would pay this year: $150,000 to men living in Janesville and $225,000 more to farmers for their beets. This factory would cut 65,000 tons; use 25,000 barrels made in Janesville and 75,000 bbls. 15,000 tons of coal and 6,000 tons of coke would be used to feed the boilers. Besides this it would use a curious amount of limestone a day. This meant large work for the rail road—an extra switching crew for the season. Land in the vicinity of the factory was made more valuable, employment was furnished at a season when some would otherwise be idle, and numerous other benefits patent to the observer were conferred by this one institution.

Taylor Carresses Railroads.

F. A. Taylor spoke almost carelessly of the railroads—for a time, he said that he had the railway discrimination subject on the reverse side of his paper and would turn the leaves when ever called upon. Railway rates, he had heard stated, were discovered, not made. President Sweeney had testified before the interstate commerce commission that the making of them was the greatest guessing game on record. The fellow with the longest pull got the best rate and the man with the shortest paid for all. The speaker believed, however, that if no railroads had entered Janesville the site would still be the forest primeval or nearly so. All railroads were built and equipped to make money and when they found it advantageous to their interests to spend cash in any city they would be found doing so. No one need expect them to be interested in any city beyond their own interest. It was not for the speaker to say that every city and person should be treated alike regardless of situation, volume of business, etc.

This City Is Well Treated.

From the services rendered at this point, it was evident that Janesville is appreciated. Some long and expensive switches had been built here. The St. Paul built a spur to the cement post factory at an estimated cost of $8,000 to $10,000. The North-Western built to the sugar factory at a cost of $5,000. The C. & N. W. has four divisions which run out of Janesville: the Alton and Belvidere, the Chicago, the Madison, and the Fond du Lac. All engines and crews change here. A total of 408 of their men live in this city. The pay-roll for August was $19,200, and the annual distribution at this point is $228,000. In and out of Janesville there are 26 passenger trains every twenty-four hours. Four divisions of the St. Paul also converge here. They are: the Chicago, the Mineral Point, the Racine and Southeastern, and the new line tapping the coal fields of northern Illinois. Employees living here number 275 and the pay-roll is from $15,000 to $18,000 per month. There are 32 passenger trains, making a total for both railways of 58 in and out of Janesville every 24 hours. When the 24 interurban cars entering and departing daily are also taken into consideration, the reason why many traveling men make their homes here and the remarkable inducements for many more are apparent. Altogether, the railroads had laid out $260,000 in improvements here in the last five years. Both had erected model stations and the St. Paul had at the present time commenced the erection of a $10,000 roundhouse.

Personalities of Agents.

Mr. Taylor believed that the city's small increase in population is to be ascribed in part to the selfish content of its people and their unwillingness to be disturbed by a great influx of strangers. But to continue with his remarks on railways: The two local representatives were considered deserving of special mention. D. J. Lindsay of the North-Western was described as "a modest man of scholarly attainments—a bachelor from Salt Lake City—ever on the alert in the interests of his road and never failing to observe a car shipped over the St. Paul," he says of a frankness born of faith: "I represent the best railroad in the world and you know it." Of Walter Johnson, agent for the St. Paul, the speaker said: "He is a hustler by nature, a railway man by choice, and a ballplayer by profession. Everybody appreciates him in Janesville but those who have not seen him on the diamond, little know him." The speaker described Agent Johnson's costume during an eventful contest at Clinton Junction as consisting of pajamas, white socks, a yellow sweater, and a red hat, and said that he saw him slam a ball over the fence and circle the bases no less than fifteen consecutive times. Such representatives, he concluded, ought to bring the population of the city up to its normal degree.

"Influx Would Have Disturbed"

The shortage in the increase of population was no fault of the railroads. Janesville was as well used as any city, not excepting Beloit with its superior manufacturing enterprises. Beloit had grown 2,384 in the five years, Janesville, being contented and disinclined to be disturbed, had let some good opportunities slip by. When an effort had been made to secure a franchise to connect Madison, Elkhart, and Stoughton by an "electric road," great objection had been made. "Some of us could not think of cars passing through loaded with dead horses. Riding with pigs on passenger trains is nothing unusual. I'd just as soon they'd be dead—if they weren't too long dead."

Conservative Square On the Map.

"This square on the map of Wisconsin, known as Rock county, is conservative. We read and still read every day that the only true road to happiness and success is to swallow that grand old animal with the trunk. Reform is simply rebellion. Public service corporations exist for public welfare, not private gain. Not long ago insurance companies were held up as models of integrity. They were to protect our bodies, soul, and life—if we want that it was mostly all Hyde. When the insurance commissioner attempted to compel all companies doing business in this state to divide the surplus once in five years, he was denounced as an extortioner. We are led to believe that Folk, Dencom, Cummings, and Weaver are upstanding and dangerous. When our blood is up we call them populists. There seems to be no room for new ideas. But there is one thing to illumine the grave of public spirit—some of our city fathers have taken to Grecian art and propose to adorn our drinking fountains with graceful statues. Imagine yourself on a cruise to Spring Brook—crisis describes it as regards our streets—with a goddess standing ready to quench your thirst."

The Lid On or Off?

Leader Wortendyke introduced the topic of "The Lid" with the statement that the speaker who was to have discussed the subject was suddenly called out of town. He had asked Rev. M. Vaughan to speak in his place, having understood that the latter was in favor of a wide-open town. Rev. Vaughan defined "The Lid" as the law—applied specifically to three things: the brothel, the gambling-house, and the saloon. The resulting question is: Shall we enforce the law respect to these three elements in modern society? The speaker believed in nailing the lid down and sitting on it. (1) because of the law

(Continued on Page 6.)

10TH YEAR OPENS FOR TWILIGHTERS

WITH OLD-TIME TALK OF THE HOME TOWN.

WAGES INCREASED $410,000

And Railroads Expended $200,000 Here in the Past Five Years, Even if Population Only Grew 600.

In the spacious auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. building last evening the Twilight Club opened its tenth year with a banquet and discussion attended by 111 members and friends. As in the past, directors of the Y. M. C. A. arranged the repast, securing the services of Mrs. Lyman Morse as caterer. Mrs. J. S. Taylor volunteered to attend to the serving and her plans were deftly carried out by the following young ladies: the Misses Lucy Fox, Marguerite Field, Bessie Birch, Bernice Laiden, Marjorie Bates, Sara MacLean, Eloise Field, Emma MacLean, Charlotte Charlton, Bertha Yates, Constance Pember, Gladys Heddes, Hazel Howo, and Ethel Walker.

A. E. Bingham Next Leader.

F. F. Wortendyke presided as leader of the discussion of the question: "Why has Janesville not grown more than six hundred in the last five years?" The opening paper was presented, however, by Rev. Denison's report as chairman of the program committee in which he offered a number of suggestions regarding the subjects for future meetings—one of them to the effect that T. S. Nolan be chosen as chairman of the committee of censors to pass on all humorous anecdotes to be related at the December meeting, being received with great applause. Science Night this season would be devoted to the physical rather than the physical. A. M. Valentine suggested that inasmuch as there appeared to be some likelihood that the R. D. & J. Interurban Co. would in the near future apply for a franchise for a road to Madison, with freight-carrying privileges, a discussion of the latter aspect of the proposition might prove useful. He was confident that opportunities for the realization of this project had been lost in the past because of the city's conservative attitude on the freight-carrying phase of the matter. The suggestion was well received and the committee expressed itself as willing to substitute this subject whenever it should become of immediate interest. This could be done, inasmuch as a thirty-day notice would have to precede any action by the city council on the application for a franchise. Treasurer C. C. Cleland reported a total of $728.90 in the treasury for the season, of which $529.50 had been paid since the last meeting and $199.40 was left over. Other expenses were enumerated and the balance on hand amounted to $55.10. F. A. Taylor suggested that the item "cigars" be investigated as none had ever been passed on his side of the house. A. E. Bingham was chosen as leader of the November meeting, the subject at that time being "Investments—Wise and Unwise" with particular local reference.

No Race Suicide Here.

After suggesting race-suicide, imperfect census gathering, and other theories as possible solutions of the small-increase-in-Janesville problem, Leader Wortendyke imposed an absolute ten-minute limit on H. J. Cunningham, who was to speak on "The Census." The speaker acknowledged that there was good grounds for fear that he might trespass on time with so exalting a subject. It was almost as exciting as Webster's Unabridged. In 1890 the total population of Janesville had been 12,135 and that same year the school census showed 3,545. In 1905 the total population of the city was 13,771 and the school census was 4,036. The race suicide theory, obviously, could not be applied, when the increase of children was nearly 500 as compared with the total increase of 556. Twenty-six per cent of the population equaled an estimate made on the same basis; this year, the city would have 15,012. Either the census roll was padded in 1900 or it was incomplete this year, or it correct in both instances there must have been a small army of the unemployed within the city's limits five years ago. There were none of this class now.

Prosperity Increased Anyhow.

The city's growth in prosperity was evident in the $123,000 increase in bank deposits and the $405,000 increase in loans since 1900. In place of two manufacturing concerns that had disappeared there were ten new ones, employing 178 additional workers, with a pay roll of $230,000. The sugar and canning factories were not included in these statistics because the employees were largely recruited from other factories during certain seasons of the year. The thirty or more other manufacturing concerns were employing 350 more people than they did in 1900 and their pay-rolls had increased in the aggregate $100,000. Altogether Janesville factories were paying for labor in 1905 a total of $410,000 more than they did in 1900.

Sugar Factory a Big Item.

One concern which had located here since 1900—the Rock County Sugar Co.—would pay this year: $150,000 to men living in Janesville and $225,000 more to farmers for their beets. This factory would cut 65,000 tons; use 25,000 barrels made in Janesville and 75,000 bbls. 15,000 tons of coal and 6,000 tons of coke would be used to feed the boilers. Besides this it would use a curious amount of limestone a day. This meant large work for the rail road—an extra switching crew for the season. Land in the vicinity of the factory was made more valuable, employment was furnished at a season when some would otherwise be idle, and numerous other benefits patent to the observer were conferred by this one institution.

Taylor Carresses Railroads.

F. A. Taylor spoke almost carelessly of the railroads—for a time, he said that he had the railway discrimination subject on the reverse side of his paper and would turn the leaves when ever called upon. Railway rates, he had heard stated, were discovered, not made. President Sweeney had testified before the interstate commerce commission that the making of them was the greatest guessing game on record. The fellow with the longest pull got the best rate and the man with the shortest paid for all. The speaker believed, however, that if no railroads had entered Janesville the site would still be the forest primeval or nearly so. All railroads were built and equipped to make money and when they found it advantageous to their interests to spend cash in any city they would be found doing so. No one need expect them to be interested in any city beyond their own interest. It was not for the speaker to say that every city and person should be treated alike regardless of situation, volume of business, etc.

This City Is Well Treated.

From the services rendered at this point, it was evident that Janesville is appreciated. Some long and expensive switches had been built here. The St. Paul built a spur to the cement post factory at an estimated cost of $8,000 to $10,000. The North-Western built to the sugar factory at a cost of $5,000. The C. & N. W. has four divisions which run out of Janesville: the Alton and Belvidere, the Chicago, the Madison, and the Fond du Lac. All engines and crews change here. A total of 408 of their men live in this city. The pay-roll for August was $19,200, and the annual distribution at this point is $228,000. In and out of Janesville there are 26 passenger trains every twenty-four hours. Four divisions of the St. Paul also converge here. They are: the Chicago, the Mineral Point, the Racine and Southeastern, and the new line tapping the coal fields of northern Illinois. Employees living here number 275 and the pay-roll is from $15,000 to $18,000 per month. There are 32 passenger trains, making a total for both railways of 58 in and out of Janesville every 24 hours. When the 24 interurban cars entering and departing daily are also taken into consideration, the reason why many traveling men make their homes here and the remarkable inducements for many more are apparent. Altogether, the railroads had laid out $260,000 in improvements here in the last five years. Both had erected model stations and the St. Paul had at the present time commenced the erection of a $10,000 roundhouse.

Personalities of Agents.

Mr. Taylor believed that the city's small increase in population is to be ascribed in part to the selfish content of its people and their unwillingness to be disturbed by a great influx of strangers. But to continue with his remarks on railways: The two local representatives were considered deserving of special mention. D. J. Lindsay of the North-Western was described as "a modest man of scholarly attainments—a bachelor from Salt Lake City—ever on the alert in the interests of his road and never failing to observe a car shipped over the St. Paul," he says of a frankness born of faith: "I represent the best railroad in the world and you know it." Of Walter Johnson, agent for the St. Paul, the speaker said: "He is a hustler by nature, a railway man by choice, and a ballplayer by profession. Everybody appreciates him in Janesville but those who have not seen him on the diamond, little know him." The speaker described Agent Johnson's costume during an eventful contest at Clinton Junction as consisting of pajamas, white socks, a yellow sweater, and a red hat, and said that he saw him slam a ball over the fence and circle the bases no less than fifteen consecutive times. Such representatives, he concluded, ought to bring the population of the city up to its normal degree.

"Influx Would Have Disturbed"

The shortage in the increase of population was no fault of the railroads. Janesville was as well used as any city, not excepting Beloit with its superior manufacturing enterprises. Beloit had grown 2,384 in the five years, Janesville, being contented and disinclined to be disturbed, had let some good opportunities slip by. When an effort had been made to secure a franchise to connect Madison, Elkhart, and Stoughton by an "electric road," great objection had been made. "Some of us could not think of cars passing through loaded with dead horses. Riding with pigs on passenger trains is nothing unusual. I'd just as soon they'd be dead—if they weren't too long dead."

Conservative Square On the Map.

"This square on the map of Wisconsin, known as Rock county, is conservative. We read and still read every day that the only true road to happiness and success is to swallow that grand old animal with the trunk. Reform is simply rebellion. Public service corporations exist for public welfare, not private gain. Not long ago insurance companies were held up as models of integrity. They were to protect our bodies, soul, and life—if we want that it was mostly all Hyde. When the insurance commissioner attempted to compel all companies doing business in this state to divide the surplus once in five years, he was denounced as an extortioner. We are led to believe that Folk, Dencom, Cummings, and Weaver are upstanding and dangerous. When our blood is up we call them populists. There seems to be no room for new ideas. But there is one thing to illumine the grave of public spirit—some of our city fathers have taken to Grecian art and propose to adorn our drinking fountains with graceful statues. Imagine yourself on a cruise to Spring Brook—crisis describes it as regards our streets—with a goddess standing ready to quench your thirst."

The Lid On or Off?

Leader Wortendyke introduced the topic of "The Lid" with the statement that the speaker who was to have discussed the subject was suddenly called out of town. He had asked Rev. M. Vaughan to speak in his place, having understood that the latter was in favor of a wide-open town. Rev. Vaughan defined "The Lid" as the law—applied specifically to three things: the brothel, the gambling-house, and the saloon. The resulting question is: Shall we enforce the law respect to these three elements in modern society? The speaker believed in nailing the lid down and sitting on it. (1) because of the law

(Continued on Page 6.)

PRETTY WEDDING AT ST. MARY'S TUESDAY

Miss Elizabeth Fanning and Mr. Jas Lewis Are United in Marriage.

Mr. James Lewis and Miss Elizabeth Fanning were united in marriage at St. Mary's church yesterday morning at 8:30. They were attended by Mr. William Mulligan and Anna Fanning, sister of the bride. After the wedding ceremony was performed they drove to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fanning, of North Johnstown, where a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. They left for Milwaukee on the 12:30 train for Milwaukee. They are going on an extended tour in northern Wisconsin and Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will be back in about two weeks. They will reside on the groom's farm in the town of Rock.

Mrs. Austin's Pancake flour is best of all. A fresh supply now on hand at your grocers.

GOOD ATTRACTIONS THAT ARE TO COME

Manager Myers Has Three Stellar Shows the Last of the Present Month.

Manager Myers has three stellar attractions billed for the last of this month and the last few days of October will see three of the best companies on the road this season in Janesville. The bookings are exceptionally strong and Mr. Myers deserves congratulations upon securing them. On Monday, the twenty-third, Jeff De Angeles appears in his opera, "Pantana." On the twenty-eighth Robert Mantell will give "Richard Third," and on the thirty-first "The Heir to the Moorah," a decided New York success, is to appear.

MEET ON THURSDAY TO HEAR A REPORT OF THE RECENT CONVENTION BY MRS. JEFFRIS

The Women's Missionary societies of the Congregational church will meet at 7:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon in the church parlors. Mrs. Jeffris will give a report of the state convention. Mrs. Cheney will tell of Dulavoor Academy, and Miss Beulah Logan of Micronesia will speak. Each lady is asked to invite a friend to come with her. Picnic tea at 5:30.

If you don't know what you want, try Mrs. Austin's Pancakes for a really good breakfast.

Don't let the children suffer. If they are fretful, peevish and cross, give them Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. The best baby tonic known. Strength and health follow its use. 25 cents. Smith Drug Co.

GOOD PRIZES

OFFERED FOR

The Largest Sugar Beet

The Largest Pumpkin,

The Largest 3 Ears of Yellow Corn.

Entries Open Until Friday Night

$5.00 in Trade

to the party (living over 3 miles from town) who brings in the Biggest Load of People to this store next Saturday.

$3.00 in Trade

for second largest load.

THE BIRTH

of the Genuine Round Oak thirty-four years ago marked the change in heating of stoves from crudity to perfection. No other stove will burn all kinds of fuel with economy, success and satisfaction to the user.

In using coal, for instance, it has a double fire pot with cone-center grate, which prevents the formation of clinkers and gives the hottest fire around the outside of fire pot, instead of in the center.

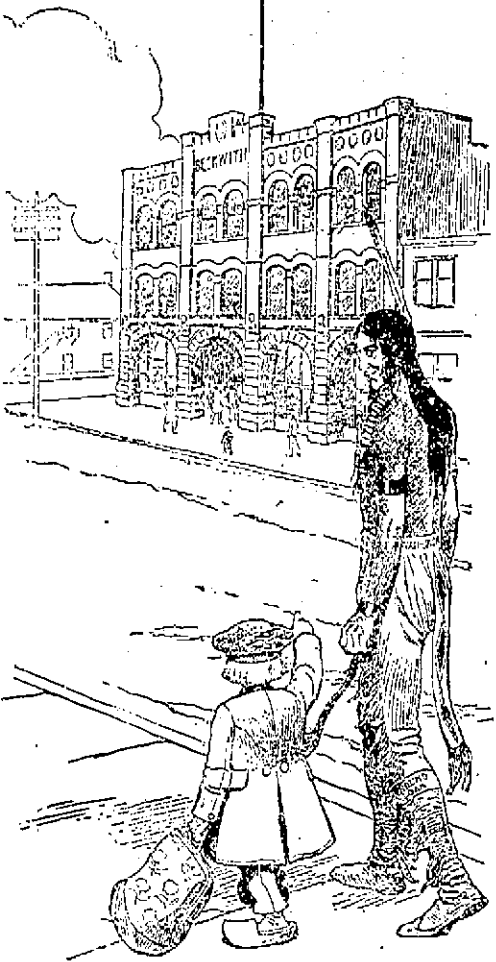

It has a hot blast, used for soft coal only.

The air is taken in at the feed door, carried around the top of the fire pot and discharged on top of fire through a series of openings. This burns the soot and gases, and makes the smoke white. Thus a steady, even fire can be maintained with the hot blast alone, burning coal from the top-downward.

Then, for hard coal with or without magazine, and coke or wood, it is equally successful.

You simply cannot afford to pass the ROUND OAK by, if you need a heating stove.

Always look for the name "ROUND OAK" on the log. There are hundreds of imitations.

"Yes, Fritz, you guessed it. That is the Round Oak Office Building. Tomorrow we will see the shops where the Round Oaks are made."

H. L. McNAMARA

= FORTY YEARS AGO =

Janesville Daily Gazette, Wednesday, October 11, 1865.—A Southern Candidate's Card.—The Jackson Mississippians give a gratuitous publication to the following announcement which was found posted on a tree in Mississippi:

"Attention Sovereigns.—Allow me through this medium to introduce myself to you as a candidate for Assessor of taxes in Hinds county. If anyone should be so inquisitive as to ask why a man of such gigantic intellect should be so low, my answer is this: The Feds in May, 1864, deprived me of my left wing; therefore vaulting ambition must stoop her flight to a level with my capabilities. Again should anyone wish to know why I did not have printed bills, I would civilly reply that my pocket-book would laugh for a week at the rattle of a greenback, and would never survive the faintest clink of metallic currency.

"I would like very much to call on the dear people and talk to them, face; but to effect this, my little school would have to close, and with it my bread and butter.

"Under these circumstances I hope to be excusable.

"With high regards, I am yours to command, the Gazette. He evidently doesn't know the point upon which smartness ceases and impudence begins. Mr. Merrill—who by the way, takes our paper and therefore knows its position—made a few sensible and just remarks on the course we have pursued in reference to the temperance question. Everyone that reads the Gazette knows full well that our position is unequivocally temperance, and if he has honestly enough to admit it, he will say so. We have published column after column of editorial and communications in advocacy of the temperance cause, because we thought it was right, but thereby giving offense to liquor dealers so that several of them have stopped the paper—not, however, because we would not furnish it to them at less than cost. We do not propose to tread, however, at the crack of any man's whip, or at the beck of any clique whatever. Our aim is, to the best of our ability, to make a good newspaper and not play the part of an "organ" to any set of men. Those men who are eternally talking of "having an organ" are the last men, the world over, to help sustain a press, no matter what its merits. We had our say."

Mr. Jonathan Church has been raising "cane" on his farm. He brought into our office a few stalks this morning which measured 12 feet. It was raised on the "openings."

..COMING ATTRACTIONS..

Nellie Violet Marshall
The well-known humorous and dramatic reader, Little Miss Marshall, is with the Smith-Marshall company, and is rendering some of Miss Scott-Sid- rores old-time successes with very great success. Miss Marshall appears in a very rich and pretty gown and her part of the program is certainly something entirely different and foreign to the usual specialty company. She gives a very clever representation of how a French student in Shakespeare interprets "Macbeth," in fact, every one of her numbers could be mentioned with praise. The motion pictures shown by the company are the very latest obtainable, their machine presenting them true, accurate and without that flicker so common in motion picture machines. The other specialties are all good and commendable. A better program is seldom offered at the Myers Grand opera-house for an engagement of two nights and a matinee, commencing Friday night, Oct. 13th.

Louise Rutter is a very pretty girl whom the late Kirk K. Shelle introduced to the stage as Kate Carnegie, supporting the veteran J. H. Stoddard in "The Bonnie Blue Bush." Miss Rutter was promoted to the ingenue role in "The Hair and the Hoarail" during its long run at the Hudson theatre, New York City, and will be seen when that new comedy is presented at the Myers Grand on Tuesday evening, October 31. Miss Rutter, who is conspicuously youthful, assumes the character of Madge Casey, the maiden aunt of two rough and ready Westerners, proprietors of the Hoarah mine. The maiden aunt idea as developed by Paul Armstrong, the author, as a quaint novelty might be utilized to advantage in the construction of a French farce.

October 11, 1905.—Six years ago today the Boer war began, the Boers advancing into Natal.

UNCALLED FOR LETTERS

GENTLEMEN.—Harley Arnold, Seth Arel, Gus. A. Brumby, H. E. Butler, Stephen Cunningham, H. S. Canfield, A. Cullen, Jos. J. Crouse, Frank Chapline, Bradford Chase, E. G. Demming, Edward Fanning, C. Haskins, Ben Horn, E. B. Hooker, Crist Hendrickson, Walter Kelly, D. J. McCarthy, Malcolm McKel, A. Miller, August Nelson, F. G. Omert, J. B. Olson, Jr., Charlie Porter, D. E. Peake, John Quinn, Martin Ryan, Prof. Speedy, Thos. Skelley, Henry Shusser, J. R. Thompson, David Wheeler.

LADIES.—Mrs. Matilda Burkheimer, Della Block, Mrs. M. E. Brooks (2), Sarah Chesen, Miss Maude Fingle, Mrs. Jennie Fields, Mrs. Harry Hamilton, Miss LeAnna Jones, Miss Mary E. Murphy, Miss Winona Richardson, Miss Florence Shoemaker, Miss Nellie Thomas, Mrs. Jennie Van Valen, Miss Belle Walker, Miss M. India Worlidge, Miss Ida Wadel.

PIRMS.—B. Broyles & Co., "Lyman the Rustler" Shoe Co.

PACKAGES.—T. J. Crew, Frank Reynolds, Geo. W. Wright.

Oct. 11, 1905.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

ENTERTAINMENT OF LA PRAIRIE GRANGE

Annual Banquet and Competitions—
Pretty People, Good Waltzers, Fine
Cookery, Receive Awards.

The annual entertainment of La Prairie Grange and L. M. B. S. had many amusing features. At Grange hall on Sept. 30 the La Prairie Grange and L. M. B. S. held their annual entertainment, about three hundred sitting down promptly at noon to an elaborate repast. The awards of the judges were generally approved. They were as follows:

Raspberry pie—Mrs. Lizzie Gleason.
Apple pie—Mrs. Esther Truesdale.
Lemon pie—Miss Maude Reeder.
Pumpkin pie—Miss Flora Thomas.
Cherry pie—Mrs. Clara Terry.
Best tin of light biscuit—Mrs. Cora Terry.

Sweetened beans—Mrs. Fannie Cummings.
Unsweetened beans—Mrs. Louie Henry.

Cottage cheese—Mrs. Cora Finch.
Devil's food cake—Mrs. Adam Scott.
Chocolate cake—Mrs. Nellie Sherman.

Sugar cookies—Mrs. Mattie Reed.
Best bouquet of flowers—Mrs. Fannie Cummings.

The program was opened in the afternoon by the Kellogg & Conroy orchestra. The first number was the award of prizes for the best recitation by girl under 10 years, which was won by Lida Caldwell.

Singing by girls under 12—Frances and Bessie Mae Childs.
Singing by girls over 12—Rhoda and Ruth Sherman.

Recitation by girl over 12—Evelyn Frost.
Recitation by girl under 12—Minnie Hill.

Recitation by married lady—Mrs. Elsie Culver.
Recitation by married lady belonging to the society—Mrs. Estelle McDaniels.

Singing by Miss Sebel.
Recitation by any person under 20—Miss Ames Higgins.

Prettiest baby under 1½ years—Harold Coen.
Prettiest young lady—Gertrude Kellogg.

Largest family present—Mrs. Mary Lowry.
Youngest grandmother present—Mrs. Eva Weirick.

Most popular married lady—Mrs. Cora Finch.
Best looking married lady—Mrs. Alice Coen.

Best waltzing by married couple—Mr. Ham Raymond and Mrs. Mattie Reed.

Best waltzing single couple—John Newman and Nellie Frost.
Best waltzing young ladies—Mary Robert and Gertrude Reeder.

Much praise is due the orchestra for the beautiful selections rendered during the entertainment and also to the special committee on games and entertainment. The program ended, all took great delight in the outdoor games which came immediately after. The day has ended and everyone is already looking forward to another gala day in 1906.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

ANNUAL CITY TAXES.
Furnished by authority of the common council of the city of Janesville.
Office of the City Treasurer, Janesville, Wis., October 20, 1905.

To Whom It May Concern:
The tax rolls and warrant for collection of city taxes for the year 1905 are now in my hands for collection and all persons interested are requested to make payment thereof at the office of the City Treasurer in the city of Janesville, or the same will be collected at the cost and expense of the persons liable for the payment of said taxes.

JAS. A. FATHERS,
Treasurer City of Janesville.

cents, ten or labels, Smith Drug Co. make tea well and keep your drug list. It will be the time to take hold of your system.

LOW RATES.

Via Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain Route.
Special home-seekers' excursions. Tickets on sale October 2nd, 17th, Nov. 7th and 21st; December 5th and 19th, 1905, to Arkansas, Colorado, Indian Territory, Kansas, Louisiana, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas. Stop-overs permitted. Return limit twenty-one days.

For further information address, L. D. KNOWLES, General Agent, 114 Wisconsin Street, Milwaukee Wis.

Can't be perfect health without pure blood. Burdock Blood Bitters makes pure blood. Tones and invigorates the whole system.

"Isn't safe to be a day without Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house? Never can tell what moment an accident is going to happen.

Everybody's liable to itching piles. Rich and poor, old and young—terrible the torture they suffer. Only one sure cure. Doan's Ointment. Absolutely safe; can't fail.

No such thing as "summer complaint" where Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is kept handy. Nature's remedy for looseness of the bowels.

UNDERWEAR.

Now is the time to buy underwear. We are showing many styles in the medium and heavy weight.

Men's fancy ribbed underwear, fleece lined, cream color or dark brown at 50c each.

Men's fancy ribbed wool underwear at $1 a garment.

Men's heavy wool underwear, flannel knit, an excellent garment, at $1 each, $2 a suit.

Exceedingly good values in ladies' ribbed, fleece lined underwear, at 25c, 35c, and 50c a garment.

Children's underwear in all sizes.

MRS. E. HALL,
55 West Milwaukee Street.

Calumet is the only High Grade Powder

offered to the consumer at a

Moderate Price

It should not be confused with the cheap, low grade powders on the one hand, nor the high priced trust powders on the other.

16,000--PEOPLE--16,000
DR. BREWER

Will show you the names, the record of medicines used and the results obtained of over 15,000 people treated by him.

THIS EXPERIENCE SHOULD BE WORTH SOMETHING TO THE SICK.

If you have met DR. BREWER you know him to be candid and honest in all he tells you. He never sacrifices manhood for the dollar nor does he profess to perform wonders but to CURE ALL CURABLE DISEASES. He has had the largest experience of any doctor in the United States in the treatment of chronic diseases. DO NOT GIVE UP TO OTHER DOCTORS FAILED.

GET THE BENEFIT OF HIS EXPERIENCE FREE.
We are prepared to show successful results in treating diseases of the Liver, Heart, Lungs, Stomach, Kidneys, Brain, Nerves, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Debility, Nervous Prostration, Cancers, Old Sores, Tumors, Fits, Diabetes, Pneumonia, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Influenza, Asthma, Scrofula, Pimples, Eruptions, Humors, Blotches and diseases long standing.

ADDRESS F. B. BREWER, 1234 CHICAGO AVE., EVANSTON, ILL.
Dr. Brewer will be at the Park House, Janesville, Wis., Oct. 14.

SUITS AT POPULAR PRICES

New up-to-date Suits at every price from $12½ to $35, but today your attention is called to three special values just in from New York.

Grey novelty material, coat 45 inches long, and lined to the waist, inlaid velvet collar, pleated skirt; special at $13½.

Handsome grey novelty mixture Suit, coat 48 inches long, with velvet collar and cuffs, satin lined to the waist, skirt full pleated; special at $18.

Lymansville Cheviot Suit in black, coat 50 inches long, heavy satin lined to the waist; skirt is pleated; coat has self collar and cuffs, Special at $18.

New Coats. New Skirts.
Millinery---Always the latest here.

Simpson
DRY GOODS

Wisconsin Conservatory of Music,

558 JEFFERSON ST., MILWAUKEE, WIS.

Musical taught in all its branches by an able and experienced corps of teachers. Instruction given in PIANO, VOICE, VIOLIN, VIOLONCELLO, ORGAN and ORCHESTRAL INSTRUMENTS AND IN ALL CIVILIZED MUSIC. LOCATION AND INSTRUMENTS. DEPARTMENTS OF HARMONY, SCHOOL MUSIC, BLOCHING for OPERA and ORATORIO.

Hours of teaching arranged to suit convenience. Free advantages. Newly furnished dormitory in charge of experienced Preceptress adjoining the Conservatory building. Rooms and board at reasonable rates.

SEND FOR CATALOGUE.

If...

a woman living on — street has a valuable fur which she wishes to sell, and a woman living on — avenue wishes to buy something of the kind, a three-line want ad. would introduce them. Without it they would probably never know each other.

Gazette Want Ads.,
Three Lines Three Times, 25c

Reau Gazette Want Ads.

If a Want Ad. cannot find the finder, then it's really lost.

THE NEW STOVE BLACKING

6-5-4
SELF SHINING
STOVE LUSTRA
CROSBY & CO
DETROIT
25c

SAVES
DIRTY WORK

WILL NOT WASH OFF

APPLIED LIKE PAINT
DRIES IN TEN MINUTES

For Sale by H. L. McNamara and A. H. Sheldon & Sons, Janesville.

Buy it in Janesville.

THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE

Business Office Open Saturday Evenings.

Entered at the postoffice at Janesville, Wisconsin, as second class mail matter.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION

Daily Edition—By Carrier:
One Year$6.00
One Month50
One Year, cash in advance..... 5.00
Six Months, cash in advance..... 2.50
Three Months, cash in advance..... 1.25

CASH IN ADVANCE

One Year$4.00
Six Months 2.00
One Year—Rural delivery in
Rock County 3.00
Six Months—Rural delivery in
Rock County 1.50
WEEKLY EDITION—One Year, 1.50
Long Distance Telephone, No. 77-2
Business Office 77-3
Editorial Rooms 77-3

Fair, frost tonight; warmer Thursday.

"An example easy to be imitated in its faults" is that of a store-advertiser who uses a page of space on one day and a quarter column on another—store expenses, in other directions, being as great on one day as the other, and "necessary income" remaining unchanged.

The people are with George Goull in his fight against Ramsey for control of the Wabash.

The young man who robbed a bank in New York of $500,000 "just for fun," is liable to have plenty of time to sober off at Sing Sing.

The president is still firm in his belief that the power of the Interstate Commerce Commission should be enlarged, and a lively contest will commence as soon as Congress convenes.

The democratic party will enjoy a breathing spell for a year while Mr. Bryan makes a tour of the old world. He will be so full of ideas when he returns that free silver will be lost in the shuffle.

Seven union printers applied to the Chicago Typothetae for work yesterday. They were sent to Omaha to fill vacancies caused by the strike. The Chicago offices are being run with a full complement of help.

The code of morals is being revised for the benefit of the masses and the protection of the classes. The discovery has been made that honest men in positions of trust need checking up now and then to see where they are at.

A saloon man in Appleton became weary of life and decided to drown himself. He walked boldly into the river and disappeared from sight but presently came to the surface and walked ashore. He said the water had a disagreeable taste and his stomach refused to retain it.

The college rush is doubtless a good thing in more ways than one. It develops muscle, and convinces the old man that he is getting something for his money not advertised on the regular program. The few men disabled are martyrs in a good cause. Let the rush go on.

It is claimed that Miss Alice Roosevelt will return to this country with $100,000 worth of presents. Royalty honors her liberally and she is obliged to accept on account of the country which she represents, and which just now occupies an exalted position among the nations of the world.

The Governor's Milwaukee Organ is gleeful over the fact that oleomargarine has practically been crowded out of the market and the price of butter materially advanced as the result. The paper neglects to add that the masses are paying the freight as a tribute to class legislation of the most pronounced type.

The city of Peoria, Ill., is the victim of misplaced confidence, or rather of negligence on account of too much confidence. The school superintendent and banker who victimized the city to the tune of half a million or more, might have been kept straight, had the men associated with him as directors, performed their duties to the public.

The Chinese boycott has been raised until Congress convenes, when it is expected that the exclusion act will be repealed or very much modified. The Chinamen may be ignorant and easily imposed upon, but this is no excuse for the brutal treatment accorded to Chinese subjects by Christian America.

The Rev. Dr. Stryker, president of Hamilton college, startled his audience at the First Congregational church in Birmingham by saying that probably 5,000 church edifices in this country could be spared if destroyed by fire. He claimed that in many communities the number of churches was far in excess of the needs, and on that account weak and inefficient. The sentiment is sound if not popular.

DILUTED ANARCHY.

Lucy Parsons attended a meeting of 600 anarchists in a West Lake street den last Sunday, says the Chicago Chronicle, and the comment she made on the gathering was characteristic and instructive. She said the Chicago anarchists had "degenerated from bomb throwers to eaters of cream puffs and from the drinking of blood to the quaffing of lemonade." That is a remarkable transformation, indeed, and it may be attributed to Judge Gary and a fearless jury of twelve men, who sent our first anarchists to the gallows. Lucy and the rest of the Sunday party evidently realize that the soil of America is not favorable to anarchistic theories or practices.

The nation has but little to fear from anarchy for the lessons of the Haymarket riot, were salutary and Lucy Parsons and her associates have profited by the experience.

The danger which threatens the nation, however, is well stated by Matt Cain, the English socialist story writer, who is now in New York studying the American millionaire as the text for a new novel.

Mr. Cain has discovered that we must have socialism in this country, and says that it will come through some such thing as the French revolution, if not otherwise.

He has been in the country long enough to inhale the new atmosphere, and it is in such heavy accord with his sentiments that it acts like a tonic.

The reforms now going on in the nation, are bringing to the surface all sorts of notions, and the most extravagant and impractical theories are advanced and readily endorsed.

Governor Folk, the Missouri reformer, said in a recent speech that "the time may come when the state will insure her own citizens at far less cost and with far more safety to those who need that protection."

That would be a fine proposition, a state life insurance company, and yet it is on a par with a lot of impractical and visionary schemes, now being exploited.

Railroad and municipal ownership is just now, the popular panacea for many of the ills of life, and the trend of public thought is along lines of socialism which if ever adopted will prove dangerous in the extreme.

RAILROAD RATE REGULATION.

The following Washington dispatch to the Wall Street Journal, defines very clearly the President's attitude on the railroad rate question, as well as the attitude of the men who oppose him.

"The differences between the majority of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee and the President on railroad rate legislation is radical and seemingly irreconcilable. Mr. Elkins heads the radical element and is generally supposed to be the mouth piece of the railroads on the committee. Himself a large owner of railroads and a director in several he is perhaps better acquainted with the technique of railroads than any man on the committee. He is unalterably opposed to giving to the government the authority to declare a reasonable rate and power to enforce it.

The President openly favors legislation that gives this authority to the Interstate Commerce Commission. The difference is radical. As the law now is the railroad fixes the rate and unless complaint is made the rate remains. If complaint is made the Interstate Commerce Commission investigates it. If it finds the complaint unjust it so declares and the railroad rate remains in force while the complainant takes it into court. If the court of last resort finds for the railroad the rate continues, but if it finds for the complainant then the rate declared reasonable by the commission goes into effect and force.

As the legal machinery is now constituted it may take and does usually take several years to get a decision from the court. The President declares this is unjust to shippers and the public. He insists that the rate declared reasonable by the Interstate Commerce Commission, when complaint is made, shall go into effect at once and remain so until overturned by the court in the ordinary course of business. This gives the shipper immediate relief and puts the railroads to prove the justness of their rate. It is a radical difference.

At present there seems no ground for compromise. The President remains unmoved from his position taken last year and will renew his drastic recommendations of last year and leave the matter to be thrashed out in Congress.

In the meantime the President will wield what power he rightfully can to bring about his rate reform legislation. Senator Oliver of Iowa will be the principal champion of the President on the committee and on the floor of the Senate. He is in thorough accord with the President on the subject."

It would seem that the tardiness of the courts has more to do with the situation, than anything else. The railroads maintain that the laws now in existence are ample, and only lack enforcement.

The American government is burdened with red tape in almost every department, and the president is so well aware of the fact that he favors a rate-making law that will take immediate effect, and throw the burden of proof for injustice, on the railroads rather than the people.

PRESS COMMENT.

Limelight Busy Elsewhere.
Chicago Record-Herald: Richard Harding Davis is almost as obscure at present as he could be if he were a hero of the Russo-Japanese war.

Single Syllable Candidates.
La Crosse Leader-Press: Three cabinet officials are candidates for president in 1908. Between Root, Shaw and Taft may the best secretary win.

Why All Sheboygan Mourns.
Sheboygan Journal: The cabbage crop in Outagamie county is reported a failure. It will be necessary to make sauerkraut without cabbage this year.

Pessimism of Coach King.
Chicago News: A glance at the map will show that the university at Madison is situated in the pleasant part of the great Mississippi valley, and not, as you might guess by reading the headlines, in the exact center of darkest Africa.

This Can't Be Janesville.
Manawa Advocate: An exchange tells of a church in a certain town where the congregation is so small that when the preacher says "dearly beloved," the only young lady in the congregation thinks he is proposing.

Hope In The Down-Trodden.
Green Bay Gazette: An Indiana judge has formally decided that a husband's refusal to attend church with his wife is not a sufficient ground for divorce. There is still a ray of hope for down-trodden man.

In Line With Fitness of Things.
Superior Telegram: An exchange remarks that the fashions are not so arbitrary and hard to follow, after all. The decree of the dressmakers' convention that waists must be smaller this season comes simultaneously with the announcement that beef has gone up.

No Instructions To Applaud.
El Paso Herald: Witte was received chilly by the St. Petersburg crowd, which probably had never heard that he had been away, and which anyhow hadn't been ordered to display any enthusiasm. Russians await official instructions in the matter of applause.

These Are Quite The Limits.
Madison Democrat: Dressmakers predict that American men will in a few years be wearing corsets. It is quite safe to say, however, that the time will never come when the men will carry their money in little satchels that dangle from their belts nor flaunt bird wings on their togues.

Gotham's Political Pot.
Racine Journal: There will be a pretty fight on this year in New York city for the mayoralty. The regular Republicans have nominated C. E. Hughes. The Democrats have put up McClellan, and the municipal ownership advocates are enthusiastic for Hearst. In the vernacular of the street, "there will be something doing."

A Pointer To Football Squad.
Pond du Lac Commonwealth: Football is a good thing in a college or high school when taken with moderation and sense, but when a football squad gets the idea that it is the whole thing in such an institution, the time has arrived to call a halt and teach the presumptuous youth a lesson that will not be readily forgotten.

As To Smoking Out Connor.
Chilton Times: The reform element in Wisconsin is willing to repudiate the primary election, mutualize or do any old thing that will keep them in power, but they should not forget that one William Connor of Marshfield will be in the game all the time. He has the ambition to be governor of this state and is a shrewd business man with a few political wrinkles of his own. McGillivray, Davidson and Lenroot will do well to keep an eye on Connor.

Glory Enough For St. Louis.
St. Louis Globe-Democrat: It is stated that the Lewis and Clark expedition at Portland will have a surplus sufficient to pay back stockholders over 25 per cent of their subscriptions. St. Louisians have given little thought to the amount to be returned on their stock in the world's fair. They set out to give the greatest of international exhibitions, and the success of their effort is glory enough, regardless of the final details of bookkeeping.

Dog Days In Dresden.
New York Tribune: Dresden has developed a curious idea. The public baths of that city will shortly receive an addition that is probably without parallel. The new annex will consist exclusively of bathing establishments for dogs, organized on the strictest lines of class distinction. There will be first, second and third class, subdivided into swimming and single wash baths. It is even gravely stated that there will be a hair dressing department. Chirophy and massage would give a finishing touch of completeness to the scheme.

Wilder's Peace Proposal.
Madison Journal: Some of "the boys" say they never would vote for Senator Stout because while his opinion of the crooked ways of La Folletteism are well enough known to his friends, yet he usually gave it his vote. However, if the Stalwart forces formally got behind him their votes would be forthcoming. He is a man we all could vote for, both Stalwart and half-breed. With his favorable note the state over, he would make a vote getter under a primary election. This is a matter to consider later. As a peace proposition we think of no one more eligible at this writing than Stout.

An Editor Boll-Weeviled.
Marion Advertiser: During the eleven years' existence of The Advertiser we can't say that we have lost any money or friends by writing emphatically of bad things or of soft-shelled, conservative hypocrites and cowards. The good things of this world, as said, will take care of themselves. It is the bad things transpiring around and about you that need a journalistic airing. Every day in the week there are drunken Indians and squaws down from the reservation swaggering up, and down the streets of Shawano and at night the dusky maidens are made drunker in the back rooms of the several joints of the town. Why don't the Shawano Journal moralize a little about that question? But no, the editor dare not, owing to post-office politics, that seems to be the "boll weevil" that is agitating his conservative conscience nights, and when the time comes he will find that this shy, indiscreet policy will bring out more opposition from the ranks of Shawano's real enterprising citizens than if he spoke plainly of the lawlessness transpiring about him. It is newspaper influence that often makes an editor postmaster. But when he closes up like a clam shell and speaks of nothing but "pretty weddings and beautiful sermons" or "it was cloudy yesterday, but the sun shines today," it will surely give his best friends an idea that he is weak.

KICKERS' KOLUM

Dear Gazette:
Is there anything this side of the Byrnesides to compare with the present condition of Academy street? Swamps, quagmires, slough, mudhole, gravel pit, quarry, all these terms and more too might easily be pressed into service in any adequate description of this so-called "thoroughfare." Shades of Noncuch! Think of enticing strangers to our beautiful city when this is their first view. Passengers arriving at the stations take one look at Academy street, and then "hike" hurriedly back to the cars and Beloit. In the interests of a larger Janesville, not to speak of a long-suffering humanity, isn't there any way to remedy these conditions?
NOTT A. GROCIL.

Keep the Factory
To the Advancement Association:
I have heard say that the proposition made by the Western Shoe company to the business men's associations of Milton and Milton Junction, was simply a blue flon Janesville to make it raise the $25,000 for additional stock in the company, but it does not seem to me that you should treat entirely as such. In the first place, I personally know that the concern has wished to increase its stock and for some months has been endeavoring to interest local capital. Thus far their efforts have been futile and it now rests with the Advancement Association to find the ones that will subscribe for the stock. I feel sure that the Western Shoe company would stay in Janesville if their present handicap was removed. Yours for
"A BIGGERTOWN."

FIRE O'DEA AND PLAY FOOTBALL NOW

Deprived of Extra Graft Crew Coach at Wisconsin Plays Dog in the Manger.

A contest has developed at the University of Wisconsin between the crew and football departments and the result may be the abandonment of aquatic as one of the recognized sporting departments of the institution. Coaches King and Holt have been humiliating themselves since the opening of the university by pleading with students to supply candidates for the football team and never have there been as many as thirty uniformed football players on the field at one time. At present, leaving out the members of the hospital list, there are not enough candidates, good, bad and indifferent, to maintain two whole elevens for each day's scrimmage, and there is an utter impossibility of such a thing as strong competition for the places on the second eleven, an element which is greatly desired by the coaches. Notwithstanding this alarming poverty of football material, Andrew M. O'Dea, coach of the crews, has called out the aquatic candidates three months earlier than usual and is engaged in an aggressive campaign among the students to get large numbers to take the preliminary work for the crews, apparently trying his best to take all the material he possibly can from the football department. He has succeeded so well in this that Coaches King and Holt have referred to it in a signed public statement calling upon crew men to appear on the football field. The feeling engendered by this situation is bitter and retaliation is vowed by football enthusiasts. The justice of the case, however, seems to rest on the side of the football department, for from the profits of the gridiron the athletic association maintains the crew, which of itself does not bring in a dollar of revenue, unless it be by voluntary subscriptions by students, members of the faculty and alumni who are annually called upon to "dig up for the crews." It costs some $5,000 a year to maintain the aquatic department and at no occasion presented by this department is an admission fee collected. In fact no admission fee collected. In fact no admission fee collected. In fact no admission fee collected.

When a person preaches from the pulpit nobody can answer him, which, perhaps, is why he generally succeeds in routing Apollonius with such heavy loss. But when one is dealing individually with the evil-doer he may "answer back," and then, if you have no typewritten retort ready, the controversial effect may be less happy—"X. X. X." in the Morning Leader.

Why He Was Late.
John Coward, a Pontefract (Eng.) farmer, had the best of excuses for not appearing in time to present at the police court one day this week. He said he had been fetched home because a sow had got loose, and had a stern chase of three miles before he could round up the obstinate beast.

To Be Happy.
A Chinese proverb says that, "To be happy on earth, one must be born in Snochow, live in Canton, and die in Janchan; for in the first are the handsomest people, in the second the richest luxuries, and in the third the best coffins."

Fifty Years the Standard

DR. PRICES' CREAM BAKING POWDER

A Cream of Tartar Powder Made From Grapes No Alum

wonderment. He used to call out the crew candidates at the close of the football season, but this year has produced crew training in the football season. One of the football men he has taken from King is Steven Walmsley, who played end on the varsity eleven early in the season. It is said that Walmsley was told by O'Dea that King did not use Walmsley right and that the athlete ought not to stand it, for he had good prospects as an ornamental and would get a free trip east out of his work, which would not be as arduous as football. The trouble has been increasing daily and some action by the athletic authorities is expected to be taken soon. Perhaps it will suspend crew work during the football season; perhaps it will abandon the aquatic department altogether.

DESCENDANT OF THE GREAT GENERAL DIED THIS MORNING

Miss Amanda Herkimer, Related to Nicholas Herkimer, Passed Away Today.

At daybreak this morning Miss Amanda Herkimer passed away. Fifteen weeks ago she fell and received severe injuries. During the last fortnight complications arose and she rapidly failed in strength. The end came peacefully about six o'clock today. For over fifty years Miss Herkimer has been a resident of our community. She came here in 1854 with her parents, Warren and Ann Herkimer. She was born Sept. 19, 1832, on the old Herkimer homestead at Little Falls, Herkimer county, New York. The family of which she was a member is distinguished in American history. The hero of the battle of Oriskany in the days of the Revolution was Nicholas Herkimer, a brother of the great grandfather of Miss Herkimer. She graduated from Charlotteville seminary before her removal to Wisconsin. Her tastes were intellectual and she was possessor of high mental ability. For seven years she taught in the public schools. She was long a teacher in the Sunday school of the Baptist church. Her membership in that church covers over fifty years. She was a devoted and exemplary Christian, the influence of whose life has long been a gracious and formative force in the community. Kindly in character, she was a woman of many friends. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Marie Herkimer Brayton of Washington, D. C.; two brothers, Horace and Charles Herkimer of this city; a niece, Mrs. Louise Herkimer Bowerman, and her daughters, Edna Herkimer Bowerman and Loree Herkimer Bowerman. The funeral will take place at the home, 152 South Academy street, at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Rev. R. M. Vaughan officiating. In the evening at 8:30 o'clock the usual mid-week service at the Baptist church will be a memorial to the noble life that has gone from us.

And Then?
When a person preaches from the pulpit nobody can answer him, which, perhaps, is why he generally succeeds in routing Apollonius with such heavy loss. But when one is dealing individually with the evil-doer he may "answer back," and then, if you have no typewritten retort ready, the controversial effect may be less happy—"X. X. X." in the Morning Leader.

Why He Was Late.
John Coward, a Pontefract (Eng.) farmer, had the best of excuses for not appearing in time to present at the police court one day this week. He said he had been fetched home because a sow had got loose, and had a stern chase of three miles before he could round up the obstinate beast.

To Be Happy.
A Chinese proverb says that, "To be happy on earth, one must be born in Snochow, live in Canton, and die in Janchan; for in the first are the handsomest people, in the second the richest luxuries, and in the third the best coffins."

THAT FROST CAME IN ADVERTISED WAY

Fair Weather for Today and Thursday with Rising Temperature.

The advertised frost has "now come." The weather man kept his word and Janesville in the past thirty-six hours has had its first touch of real winter. The coal men have been rushed to death delivering late orders and answering hurry-up calls. People who delayed having their furnaces cleaned have kept the furnace men on the jump and the ice man with a depleted stock of frozen fluid has taken a well-deserved rest. Up at Dittell the first now of the season arrived. It was not much but enough to let people on the shores of the big lake know that the "winter of their discontent" had arrived. The weather reports for Wisconsin are: Fair Wednesday and Thursday with rising temperature. A slight snow, "pill snow," arrived in Janesville about ten this morning.

The Reverent Cha-yoman.
I am credibly informed, writes a correspondent of an English paper, that young ladies who take part in decorating a church at Christmas or Easter are required to wear their headgear, and on no account may they lay aside their hats till they leave the church. I suppose the woman who washes the floor of the church must do so with her head covered. To do otherwise would be an unpardonable irreverence.

Too Much Water.
Little Marjorie had been enjoying herself among a brood of tiny chicks. Several of them she had grasped tightly and held with their heads under water, until they lay before her at last, stark and stiff and kickless. Then her mother having appeared upon the scene, Marjorie said earnestly: "Dem little chickens dinked and dinked and dinked, till they died!"—Pacific Monthly.

CHICAGO MARKETS

HAMMOND ELEVATOR CO.
From J. M. Gibson, Broker, 204 Jackson Block, Janesville.

	Dec.	High.	Low.	Close
Wheat	87 1/2	87 1/2	87	87 1/2
Sept.	86 3/4	86 3/4	86 1/2	86 3/4
May	43 1/2	44	43 1/2	44
Oct.	41 1/2	42	41 1/2	42
July	30 1/2	31	30 1/2	30 1/2
May	28 1/2	29	28 1/2	29
Oct.	12 1/2	13	12 1/2	13
July	12 1/2	13	12 1/2	13
Oct.	6 1/2	6 1/2	6 1/2	6 1/2
July	5 1/2	5 1/2	5 1/2	5 1/2
Oct.	5 1/2	5 1/2	5 1/2	5 1/2
July	5 1/2	5 1/2	5 1/2	5 1/2

CHICAGO CASH RECEIPTS.
To-day, Contract. Ex. Total over.

	To-day	Last Week	Year Ago
Wheat	50	40	23
Oct.	18	20	118
July	21	25	118
Nov.	21	25	2300

Live Stock Market
RECEIPTS TODAY

	Head	Ships
Chicago	2200	2100
Kansas City	500	200
Omaha	500	500
Close	2000 net slide lower
Light	2000	2000
Medium	2000	2000
Heavy	2000	2000
Butt	2000	2000
Cattle 2100 strong
Sheep 2000 strong
Kansas City	2000	2000
Omaha	2000	2000

100 LATE TO CLASSIFY

A DUESIVE, harmless, invisible Satin Skin Complexion Powder is best for you, because best made. See 4 trials.

OST on East Milwaukee street about latter part of September—Black silk fringe open work chawl. Reward to finder, at Gazette office.

WANTED—Bricklayers at the C. H. Bosly works, Beloit, Wis.

Winter Cloaks, Furs, Suits, Millinery

Skirts, Waistings, Dress Goods Underwear.

Large showing of new lines

Antique Hardware
any goods at low prices

Buy your PERFUMES at Smith's (over 100 different kinds) and get a key on the Box of MONEY.

BULBS

For Fall Planting
Tulips, Hyacinths, Crocus, Narcissus, Chinese Sacred Lily, Easter Lilies, Candidum, Freesias.

WALTER HELMS
29 S. Main St.

Buy your Drugs at Smith's and get a key on the Box of Money.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE, October 13th.

JOSEPH E. YACOU,
a native of Assyria, will appear in his costume
AT THE Y. M. C. A.,
Friday Night of This Week and lecture, illustrated with a special map of the country called Kurdistan. Also 70 fine views of Turkey and Persia. Pictures where the Kurds murder Christians. There will be exhibited the Arabic language, written six hundred and thirty-two years ago, and some recently written by Mr. Yacou. This will be an evening for all citizens.
Admission, 10 and 15c.

H. PERSSON, ...TAILOR...

Rooms, 329-331, Hayes' Block.
Formerly cutter with T. J. Ziegler Clothing Co.

MR. JOHN FITZGERALD of 262 Prospect Avenue.

Mr. Fitzgerald has for many years been a well-known and highly esteemed resident of Janesville, and is a man whose statements weigh sixteen ounces to the pound.

He would be the last man to exaggerate a matter in the least. The other day he ran across a friend on the street who was suffering with his teeth, and he said, "You go to Dr. Richards, over Hall & Sayles' jewelry store, and he will fix your teeth up right. His prices won't ruin you either." He further said that Dr. Richards had put in for him six or eight gold crowns some four years ago, and they were as good today as ever and doing the best of service.

The friend took a hike for the said dentist, got relieved and came down stairs and met Mr. Fitzgerald in front of the cigar store. He shook hands with him and thanked him for sending him to the right man. He hadn't been hurt a particle.

This is only one of hundreds of such incidents, so general is becoming the knowledge that if you get the right dentist you don't need to be hurt.

F. E. WILLIAMS
Graduate
Optician.
Special Attention Given to Prescriptions and Adjusting Frames.
Grand Hotel Block.

Cleaners & Dyers
Fancy Waists, Skirts and Dresses of every description can be DRY CLEANED without removing trimmings.
Janesville Steam Dye House
CARL F. BROCKHAUS, Prop.
59 East Milwaukee St.

This is Good Weather for BOWLING.

Our alleys are in the best of condition

Leffingwell's Bowling Alley

WEST SIDE THEATRE

CLARENCE BURDICK, Manager.
Matinee Daily 3 p. m., except Mon.
Every Night, 8 p. m.

See McCune & Grant This Week.

HIGH CLASS VAUDEVILLE.

Hand bags for the fall and holiday use are much smaller than have been used for some time. The shape called "The Envelope" and the medium-sized square with leather handles take the lead in style.

Pinner qualities and higher priced pieces are called for.

People have gone jewelry crazy, evidently. Never has there been such a call for bracelets, crosses, pendants, neck chains, fobs and hat pins. Both gold and silver are used, but more particularly the gold. Rings are still in great demand, three or four often being worn on a finger.

Dainty designs of scarf pins are in the market, many set with slug pearls, with Roman gold leaves—in fact, a four-in-hand should not be worn without a pin.

Now that the bicycle has had its day, gentlemen are carrying walking sticks.

LATE LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF

Mr. L. G. McCulloch, the broom-maker at 53 South Academy street, is making a first-class hand-made broom. Orders by phone, number 5424, will receive prompt attention.

Having sold our shop and being about to leave the city, we hereby notify all those being indebted to us to kindly call and settle at an early date. Heller & Burgess.

An oyster supper and card party will be held by the members of Olive Branch Lodge No. 36, A. O. U. W. All members and their families are invited to be present Friday evening at East Side I. O. O. F. hall.

Life with the Kurds, illustrated with 70 slides, at Y. M. C. A. Friday night. The recent murder of Christian missionaries will be shown and explained. Admission, 10 and 15c. Notice large ad on page 4.

J. M. Bostwick & Sons tell about 4 good things today.

A carryall-load of young people attended at dance in Hanover last evening.

The Art League will meet with Mrs. Scarles, No. 6 Olive street, on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. A full attendance is desired, as there is important business to attend to.

LODGE MEETINGS TONIGHT

Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., at East Side Odd Fellows' hall, Janesville Chapter No. 98, O. E. S., at Masonic hall.

Crystal Camp No. 132, R. N. A., at Modern Woodmen hall.

Trades Council at Trades Council hall.

Bunker Hill.

DOES JANESVILLE WANT BASE BALL?

THIS IS THE QUESTION PRESIDENT POWERS ASKS.

WANTS TEN-TEAM LEAGUE

La Crosse, Green Bay, Goshawk Fond du Lac, Appleton, Wausau, Madison, Beloit, Janesville, Freeport.

Does Janesville want a baseball team next year? This is the question that President John T. Powers of the Wisconsin state league was asking Janesville business men this morning. President Powers is enthusiastic over his project of a ten-city league. He insists that Janesville should be in the game and have a good team. He is sure that the showing made by the six-league team this last year demonstrates that baseball is a paying venture and that the interest in the game had not been lost.

Here to Talk Business
Mr. Powers arrived in the city last night and spent the morning discussing his proposition with prominent business men. He thinks that the time is ripe now to begin the work of organizing a stock company to take care of the team and that Janesville cannot afford to be left out. He went to Madison this noon to talk to the enthusiasts there, but will return tomorrow and remain here over Friday, furthering his plans.

The League
President Powers figures that with a ten-team league the game would be much snappier, the expenses less and the games better attended. He has in view the old Wisconsin league of the six cities, La Crosse, Wausau, Green Bay, Beloit, Oshkosh, Freeport, and in addition, Madison, Appleton, Fond du Lac and Janesville. When he returns Thursday he will present his views to certain business men in the hopes of exciting their interest in the project.

FIRST GATHERING IS FULL OF INTEREST

Daughters of the American Revolution Met Tuesday with Mrs. Lovejoy.

Daughters of the American Revolution had the pleasure on Tuesday afternoon of listening to three papers on "Natural Wisconsin," which were both interesting and entertaining. This was the opening meeting of the year and Mrs. A. P. Lovejoy was the hostess. Thirty-six ladies were in attendance yesterday and among the important business transacted was a change in the by-laws of the chapter making the meeting every month instead of every two months as heretofore. The next meeting will be held on November 14, Mrs. E. E. Loomis being the hostess. The topic for this year's reading and papers is "Wisconsin" and at the November meeting the subjects to be discussed will be explorations. Yesterday the papers were read by Mrs. A. P. Lovejoy, whose subject was "Natural Wisconsin." Mrs. Charles Fifield had prepared a paper on "Primitive Archaeology of Wisconsin," which was read for her by Miss Mable Jackson. Mrs. Bowditch discussed "The Primitive Wisconsin Indian." Two musical numbers, one by Miss Mae Treat and the rendering of "Hiawatha," Mrs. J. F. Pember giving the reading and Mrs. J. F. Sweeney interpreting the music, were given.

"HIS LAST DOLLAR" PROVED THE MASCOT

A Good Horse Play Full of Excitement Held Boards Last Evening at Myers Grand.

Mixing love with the intrigue of the race-track stables, purity of womanhood with the wiles of tricky gamblers, David Higgins in "His Last Dollar" and his racer Mongrel held the stage at the Myers Grand last evening. "His Last Dollar" is not a play that will attract audiences when many others will be forgotten. Like all the plays of its calibre, it has the hackneyed attempts of the villain to frustrate the efforts of Eleanor Downs to get a square deal for her fast horse Mongrel that is to save her family from penury and the life of her dear old father. Of course Mongrel wins. You expect that when you go to the theatre, but the side-plays, the machinations of the ring of tricky race-men, give interest to the performance. The parts were well taken and the audience much pleased with the production.

IMMENSE CROWD AT GOOD CHEER SOCIAL

Between Two Hundred and Fifty and Three Hundred at Methodist Church Last Evening.

Between two hundred and fifty and three hundred people gathered in the parlor of the Methodist church last evening to enjoy the Good Cheer Social which had been arranged. The early portion of the evening was spent in chatting and the latter part in a program, which was as follows:

Song—"Blest Be the Tie That Binds."
Reading, Mrs. Whitmore.
Solo, Stanley Horwood.
Reading, Miss Ethel Hodge.
Anatomy Quiz, Mr. Bennison.
Reading, Mrs. Ogden.
Song—"God Be With You."
For the great success of the affair much credit is due Mrs. C. Kennermer and Mrs. A. F. Rice, the committee that made the arrangements.

Train Struck Wagon: A wagon belonging to a man named R. Bates, who was picking up coal near the coal sheds, was struck by train 137 on the St. Paul last evening at 8:50. The wagon was demolished but the driver escaped unhurt.

WILL COMMEMORATE COLUMBUS LANDING ON AMERICAN SOIL

The Knights of Columbus Plan for a Banquet for Thursday, October Twelfth.

On Thursday, October 12, the four hundred and thirteenth anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus will be celebrated in Janesville with a banquet, at which the Knights of Columbus of this city will act as hosts. The banquet will be served at the Myers Hotel, covers being laid for a hundred and fifty guests. The final arrangements as to who will act as toastmaster and the subjects of the different speakers will be announced later. Among the prominent men from away who will speak at the gathering are Judge A. J. Collins of Freeport, Fr. J. J. Collins of North Fond du Lac and Francis O'Shaughnessy of Chicago. Mr. O'Shaughnessy's address is entitled "The Discovery." The Rockford, Beloit and Madison Knights have been asked to attend as guests. The banquet will be served at promptly 7:45.

BELOIT BURGLARS NABBED BY CHIEF

Frank Smith and Matt Kozel, Who Robbed One of Ferrari Shows, Brought to County Jail Here.

Shortly after twelve o'clock last evening two thieves broke into a strong box in the Katzenjammer Kids show which is with the Ferrari carnival at Beloit and got away with some watches and other valuables. The theft was quickly discovered, however, and Chief Scheibel soon had his hands on the culprits, capturing them with the valuables on their persons. They were brought to Janesville this afternoon in company with three drunks and placed in the county jail to await trial. Their names are Frank Smith and Matt Kozel. Charles Webb, John Sumption, and R. B. Dale will each serve five days for drunkenness. Chief Scheibel says that no trace has been found of the parties who robbed the treasury box. The money last amounted altogether to $203.

In municipal court this morning Michael Griffin and Antonio Peschi were each given five days in the county jail. Jim Riley, who wandered in from prohibition Darien after a year's absence, was given a chance to fly homeward under a suspended sentence.

BRODHEAD'S MAYOR IS VERY LIBERALMAN

Practically Donates a City Hall to the Municipality He Governs.

At a special meeting of the city council of Brodhead held Monday evening Mayor H. C. Putnam donated a $10,000 city hall to the city. The building is a three-story brick structure and is especially adapted to the use of the city. It is in an excellent location and plenty large enough to accommodate the fire department, water works department, jail, council, G. A. R., and the city library. Mr. Putnam recently purchased the property and gave it to the city in consideration for a small portion, 22 feet, in a block on the south side, the value of which is insignificant. His only stipulations were that the first fifty feet on the second floor be given the city for library purposes and that the G. A. R. be given a room on this floor free of charge as long as the organization existed. Mr. Putnam recently macadamized a block on the main street there at his own expense.

TWO PARTIES HELD IN LAST TWO DAYS

Miss Corrinne Spaulding Surprised Last Evening—Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher Entertain.

Last evening friends of Miss Corrinne Spaulding who are employed at the Janesville Steam Laundry surprised her at her home, 229 South Main street, and a most enjoyable evening was spent at cards and other games. Delicious refreshments were served and all enjoyed a good time. On Monday evening last Mr. and Mrs. James Gallagher entertained and Mrs. James Gallagher, Lucy Macklin, Nettie Edgington, Mamie Blunk, Mac Harder, Alice McCann, Nellie Quirk, Grace Tennant and Mae McCarthy. Messrs. Frank Bowman, W. Joyce, P. Putnam, J. Higgins, Dr. Kennedy, Dr. Lindstrom, A. Kempt, Dr. Joyce, Carlton Kohler, M. Williams, W. J. McCarthy, H. Joyce, J. Clark, T. Mackin, A. Edgington, T. Nolan, W. Connell, J. Hagar, F. Connors and F. Albright, and Mesdames Bradley Dec, M. J. Leabey, Peterson, Northrop and F. Dixon.

FUTURE EVENTS

Smith-Marshall motion pictures and specialties at Myers theatre Friday and Saturday evening, Oct. 13 and 14, with Saturday matinee.
Dave Lewis in the comic opera, "The Geeser of Geck," at Myers theatre, Wednesday evening, Oct. 18.
Bunker Hill.

THE WEATHER

Temperature last 24 hours taken from registered thermometer at Heim street's drugstore: highest, 60; low, 37; at 7 a. m., 40; at 3 p. m., 50; wind, north; snow, heavy.

"HOLD THE FORT FOR WE ARE COMING" IS THE CRY OF PACKERS

Local Merchants Who Appeared in Court Yesterday Expect to See the Fur Fly.

It would appear as though J. G. Moore, state dairy and food inspector, who caused the arrest of four local merchants yesterday on the charge of having sold sausage that contained coloring matter and boracic acid or salts thereof, has run against a snag. Madison and Milwaukee have both been visited by this crusade against violations of the pure food law and some convictions have been secured from butchers who had rather pay their fines than fight the case. The Chicago packers, however, are up and in arms now and if the telegram from the Nelson-Morris Packing company to Alderman Murray means anything, they will give Mr. Moore a hard time when the case is called on Monday next. They wired Mr. Murray last night to have the case continued and wire them the date, so the could take care of it.

WANTED JANESVILLE PRINTERS TO COME

Representative of Chicago Typothetae in City After Men to Take Strikers' Places.

E. Baier, a representative of the Chicago Typothetae, was in the city yesterday and today looking for printers to take the place of strikers in a number of the job offices in Chicago, where an eight-hour day was recently demanded by the union, resulting in the stand for a nine-hour day and an open shop policy on the part of the employers. No men were secured to go immediately, although several have promised to go later, and there are prospects of others accepting the call. Mr. Baier offered contracts for a year or more, to be drawn up after the applicants had proved themselves competent, at the following minimum scale: compositors, $13.50 per week; stone-men, $22 to $25; lithotype operators, $24 to $30; two-third compositors, $15. The men would also receive their railroad fare to Chicago and a week's board free. This board would be in a hotel established by the Typothetae that is up-to-date and modern in every way. Free printers who are non-union men working at nine hours a day can receive board at $3.50 per week. In regard to the situation in Chicago, Mr. Baier said: "The Typographical Union is circulating false reports as to the conditions in Chicago, claiming that with one or two exceptions work is at a standstill, while the truth of the matter is that there are 60 firms that are either struck or running non-union plants. In these 60 houses there was a full working force of 685, of which there are now working 529. With the 7 additional houses which have refused to sign the agreement and which have not yet been struck, there will be affected 67 houses with a full working force of 745. On account of the many unaffiliated houses having signed its contracts the Typographical Union claims that the eighth-hour day has been won in Chicago. Such are not the facts. The Chicago Typothetae stands firmly upon the platform of the United Typothetae of America for the open shop and the nine-hour day, and it will make no settlement with the Typographical Union on any other basis. The Typothetae membership has now been more united, never more determined to fight to a successful issue, and has never made such rapid progress in a strike. Every firm is taking care of all its emergency work, and many are already running under normal conditions. But the high quality and large number of workmen obtained has been a surprise, and daily desertions from the union occur."

WHERE IS THE MONEY DUE THE CENSUS MEN?

They Have Not Been Paid for Their Work in Gathering in Data for the State.

"I see that the state food commissioner is after some of our butchers for selling what he calls bad sausage," said Mr. Lester this morning. "I suppose the state treasury is empty and that the Governor has taken this means to raise enough money to pay us census enumerators," he continued. "I guess the public does not know that we have not yet been paid but that is a fact. We ought to have had our checks long ago, but perhaps there was not enough money to run the campaign and pay Jim Davidson for acting as Governor. While Bob is away and then pay us."

CURRENT ITEMS

Fire in Madison: The stables of Cooly's coal and wood yard at Madison, near the North-Western depot, burned last night at midnight, eight head of horses and a pony being burned.

Joe Tracey, for several years cook on the Twentieth Century Limited on the Lake Shore road, has just removed to Janesville and entered the employ of McClure's restaurant.

To Study Law in West: Joseph Burns has left for Los Angeles, California, where he will again take up the study of law.

Erecting Framework: Contractor Slevert is building a new dwelling-house at 264 Glen street. The foundation has been completed and the framework is being raised. The house will cost between $2,500 and $3,000.

The One General Mistake.
People are never so near playing the fool as when they think themselves wise.—Lady Mary Wortley Montagu.

Bunker Hill.

WANTED, immediately—An energetic man or woman to represent a large manufacturing house. Good salary. Address G. Humphrey, General Delivery, Janesville.

GENERAL RANDALL IS VISITING SISTER, MRS. ANNA M'KENNEY

Late Commander Northern Military Division, U. S. A., Arrives in City.

Major General George M. Randall and his Filipino boy, Jack, arrived in Janesville last night, and will spend the rest of the month with his sister, Mrs. Anna McKenney, on Roger avenue.

SECURES CONTRACTS TO BUILD FACTORY

T. J. Hilt Will Erect New Structure at Walworth—Will Employ Many Men.

Walworth is to have a new industry, the Hammer and Tool Company, which is to remove from Chicago. In order to accommodate this industry a large new factory is to be erected and T. J. Hilt of this city has just secured the contract for the work. The plans are all drawn and it is expected that work of construction will begin next Thursday. Mr. Hilt expects to take many workmen from here to help him complete his work this fall and winter.

NEWS OF A PERSONAL NATURE

Eben L. Kendall of New Orleans was in the city today.

Miss Grace Conroy went to Brodhead this morning.

Miss Ennis of Orfordville was a visitor in the city today.

Dr. Hoffman of Rockton is the guest of Janesville friends.

J. M. Ward went to Kenosha this morning, where he will visit his son for a few months.

Miss Mable Woodman and Mrs. E. C. Roof have returned from a few weeks' visit with relatives in Mason City, Iowa.

Mrs. William Cannon of Los Angeles, California, is in the city visiting her two sisters, Mrs. A. C. Kent and Mrs. William Roworth, 206 North Bluff street.

Capt. Benjamin F. Moore is very ill at his home, 105 Fifth avenue.

Mrs. A. A. Jackson is in Milwaukee.

C. S. Nolan is in Waukesha on business.

George S. Parker has returned from a trip to the western part of the state and into Iowa and Illinois.

Mrs. Fannie Murdoch is home from an extended visit in Chicago.

Mrs. James Shearer has been called to Fond du Lac by the death of her son-in-law, Mr. D. S. Thomas.

Mrs. Winbiger of Findlay, Ohio, is the guest of her son, Mr. William Winbiger and wife, 160 Cherry street.

Mrs. S. A. Carman left on Sunday for Brooklyn, New York, where she will visit relatives.

Miss Caryl Fairchild of Madison is spending the day with friends in the city.

John Like of South Main street, who has been ill for some time, is slightly improved.

Tom Baker, who was stricken with paralysis last week, is in about the same condition as he has been since the stroke.

Miss Etta Capelle left this morning for a week's visit in Chicago and Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Murdoch have returned from the Dakotas. While there they made the purchase of another section of land.

A. H. Sheldon returned from Chicago last night.

Supt. Edwidge of the St. Paul road was here from Milwaukee today.

Sale of Mining Stock
For sale for 10 days only, 475 shares of mining stock of the Dall Lead & Zinc Co. of Plattville, Wis. Price, $5 per share. This stock will probably be in the dividend-paying class by Nov. 1st. Address care this paper, D-4.

Green Bay Gazette: Congressman Esch has made the statement that he does not care to become a candidate for governor to succeed La Follette. On the contrary he wishes to retain his present position and expects to be a candidate for re-nomination. He is careful, however, not to assert that he will not accept the nomination for governor should his friends succeed in securing it for him.

Don't Neglect That Unmarked Grave Any Longer.

We have a carload of brand new stock on hand, ranging in price, from $5 to $300, which we will sell at actual cost until January 1st. This is done in order to make room for two carloads of stock to be received at that time. Nothing reserved; every piece goes. We pay no agents' commissions.

MRS. F. A. BENNETT & CO.

Buy your Cigars at Smith's Pharmacy and get a key on the Box of Money.

"Fleek's" Window

Don't fail to see the beautiful

WATER COLOR PAINTINGS

in our window—the work of our talented artist, Ella P. Smith. Prices not too high.

"FLEEK'S"

De Alton Thomas
Word was received yesterday of the sad death of Mr. De Alton Thomas of Fond du Lac as a result of lung trouble. Mr. Thomas was married to Miss Alice Shearer of this city about three years ago and was an attorney-at-law and for some time district attorney at Eau Claire. Several weeks ago he contracted a severe cold which resulted in a case of quick consumption and in spite of all that a most loving wife and friends could do the end came yesterday morning just at the break of day. Mr. Thomas was a most popular young man and to the bereaved wife the deep sympathy of scores of friends will be extended.

SPRING FLOWERING BULBS

Now Is the Time to Plant Your Spring Flowering Bulbs.

Tulips, double, fancy, mixed, 20c doz.
Crocus, extra fine, 15c doz.
Hyacinths, double, extra fancy, 90c doz.
Narcissus or daffodils, 50c doz.
Chinese Sacred Lilies, 8c each.
F. J. Hinterschied, 5 & 10c store.

FIND CONCORD GRAPES

But the last call at 20c a basket is today.

New York apples, big, ripe, 20-oz. pippins, 38c pk.
Large white maiden blush or large deep red apples, 50c pk.

Fine round cooking apples, 30c pk.
Fine plum elder apples, 35c pk.
40 cals. fresh market apple cider today, sweet as the juice in the apple, 40c gallon.

Big yellow quince, 3 lbs., 25c.
Pound sweet apples, 40c pk.
Finest Jersey sweet potatoes, 3c lb.
Fancy Tokay grapes, 10c lb.
Fancy white grapes, 10c lb.
Citron, 10c each.

Nice tomatoes, last chance, 4c lb., 25c pk.
White wheat bread, 5c loaf.
Homemade potato bread, 4c loaf.
Sour cream fried cakes, 10c doz.

GRUBB PRODUCE CO.

Buy True Violet Toilet Soap at Smith's and get a key on the Box of Money.

Bran and Middlings.

For the next ten days we will quote very low prices on best quality Bran and Middlings in ton and carload lots.

F. H. GREEN & SON

43 North Main.
New Phone 1054.
Open Wednesday and Saturday Evenings.

FREE!

Just to get acquainted with the farmers, we are going to give each one a combination egg-casser and tester. It's not a valuable present, but very convenient. If you are not satisfied with its value, have a cigar with us and call it square.

E. N. FREDENDALL

Flour per sack $1.20

Lemons, per doz. 25c
Sweet Potatoes, 10 lbs. for 25c
3 Pkgs. Eggs-O-Seck. 25c
½ Gal. Sweet Pickles. 25c
Fancy Rice, per lb. 5c

A. L. LUTZ,

352 South Academy St.
Telephone Your Orders.

WINSLOW'S PRICES

2 lb. packages Quaker Oats 8c
Quaker puffed Rice 8c
Eggosee 8c
Malta Vita 8c
Pettijohn Breakfast food 10c
Shredded Wheat Biscuit 10c
3 lbs. Bulk Oatmeal 10c
4 1 lb. packages Corn Starch 25c
4 1 lb packages A & H Soda 25c
3 lbs. Rice 10c

E. R. WINSLOW

20 North Main St.

FAIRSTORE

Men's Heavy Fleece Lined Underwear; Shirts 34 to 46, Drawers 33 to 44; extra value @ per garment. 48c

Men's Camel-Hair Wool Underwear, the kind that don't shrink in washing, @ per garment. $1

Men's Duck Coats with Heavy Wool Lining, also rubber inter-lining, @ $1.65

Men's Outing Flannel Work Shirts in Light and Dark Colors @ 45c

Men's Flannel Outside, Shirts in Blue and Brown, Extra Heavy Grade, @ each $1

Men's Heavy Woolen Hose in Black, Brown, Blue Mixed and Brown Mixed, @ 25c

It's not by accident that ours is a busy Coal office.

Here is the secret—One price to everybody.

OUR-- ECONOMY COAL

THE YOKE

A Romance of the Days When the Lord Redeemed the Children of Israel From the Bondage of Egypt

By Elizabeth Miller

Copyright, 1905, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company own feelings what it is that enables men to suffer an eager martyrdom. Two Hebrews outside the limits of the camp halted him.

"I bring tidings to your captain," he explained. The answer was sweet.

HEVER

"I bring tidings to your captain," from the speaker's lips and carried away by the wind, but he caught these words:

"Thou art an Egyptian. Thy kind hath no friendship for Israel."

"I am of Egypt, but I am one with you in faith. Conduct me to the prince."

"Take him," said one to the other. "He is but one."

The Hebrew thus addressed motioned Kenekes to follow him and turned toward the encampment.

They passed through a lane between two tribes. Kenekes guessed, looking first upon one and then the other, that there were 100,000 in the two.

Strip a city of her plan and shape, her houses, her pleasures and commerce; leave only her people, their smallest possessions and all their fears; beset such a city with an army on three sides, the sea on the fourth and a furious hurricane over all—and in such state and of such appearance were these two tribes.

Kenekes fortified himself and resisted with all his might the contagious panic that seemed about to attack him. As well as he might he concentrated his mind upon other things. He noted that the shadows were long, like those of afternoon. Turning his head, he saw that the pillar stood behind the encampment and that its light was thrown forward and downward, not backward and outward. Very manifestly the benefits of the miracle were only for the believers in Jehovah. The marvel brought into the young man's mind some natural speculation concerning the great miracle worker to whom his guide was leading him.

What manner of man was he about to look upon—a sorcerer, a trafficker in horrors, a confounder of men?

Ahead, particularly illumined by the celestial light, was a group of elders—great, grave men, misted in the flying fleeces of their own beards. They bent firmly against the blast, and the broad streaming of their ample drapings added much to the idea of supernatural power and resistance they inspired.

The Hebrew leading Kenekes slackened his step, as if hesitating to approach so venerable a council, when suddenly the group separated, revealing a majestic man about whom it had been clustered.

After a word in his own tongue, delivered with bent head and deferential attitude, the Hebrew stood aside.

Kenekes prepared to meet a prince of Egypt, whatever the personality of the Israelite. He dropped on one knee, bent his head and extended his hand with the palm toward Moses. The great man took the fingers and bade the young Egyptian arise. Forty years a courier, forty years a shepherd, but the graces of the one had not been forgotten in the simplicities of the other. When Kenekes gained his feet, to his face the wondrous stranger he had seen in the tomb of the incomparable Pharaoh!

At a sign from Moses, Kenekes came near to him, that the bow of the toughest and the turmoil of Israel might not drown their voices.

"Thou art weary, my son," the Israelite said, glancing at the tired face and dusty raiment. "Hast thou come from afar?"

"From Goshen to Tanis and thither, O prince."

"About?"

"Thou hast journeyed farther than Israel, and Israel is most weary. I trust thy journey is done."

And this was the confounder of Egypt, the vicar of God—this kindly noble!

"Not yet, O prince, but its dearest mission endeth here. I come of the blood of the oppressors, but I am full of pity for thy people's wrongs. Knowest thou that the Egyptians pursue thee? Is thy hand made strong with resources? Hath the Lord God prepared thee against them?"

"From whom art thou sent?" the Israelite asked pointedly.

"I am come of mine own accord."

"Wherefore?"

"Because I am one with Israel in faith."

The great lawgiver surveyed him in silence for a moment, but the penetrating brilliance in his eyes softened.

"The great lawgiver surveyed him in silence for a moment, but the penetrating brilliance in his eyes softened."

"The great lawgiver surveyed him in silence for a moment, but the penetrating brilliance in his eyes softened."

"The great lawgiver surveyed him in silence for a moment, but the penetrating brilliance in his eyes softened."

"Wast thou taught?" he asked at last.

"In casting away the idols, nay, in finding the true God I was."

In the pause that followed Israel lifted up his voice, and to Kenekes it seemed that the people besought their great captain ungently and chidingly. The lawgiver listened for a little space. His gaze was absent, the lines of his face were sad. Something in his attitude seemed to say: "What profiteth all thy care, O Lord? Behold thy chosen—these men of little faith!"

Then, as if some thought of the young proselyte, the Egyptian, arose in contrast, his eyes came back to Kenekes again.

"Thou hast filled me with gladness, my son," he said simply.

Kenekes bowed his head and made no answer. Presently the Israelite spoke to the panic-stricken people, nearest to him. In the tone and the words he used there was a world of paternal kindness, a composite of confidence, reassurance and implied protection that should have soothed.

"Fear ye not. Stand still and see the salvation of the Lord, for the Egyptians ye have seen this day ye shall see again no more forever."

At the words Kenekes lifted his head quickly. The Hebrew had answered his question, but how enigmarically! Was Israel to escape, or had he not to be destroyed? In either case the young man wondered concerning himself. Again the eyes of the lawgiver returned to him, as if the sight of the young Egyptian was grateful to him.

"Abide with us," he said. "Saith not thy faith, 'Fear not, the Lord shall fight for thee?'"

Kenekes' face wore a startled expression. How had the Israelite divined his purpose? "Saith not thy faith?" Faith? He confessed faith, but faith had not spoken that thing to him. Slowly and little by little he began to manifest itself to him that he had wavered in his trust; that the purpose of his visit to Israel had questioned the fidelity of his God's care; that so surely had he doubted he had defied danger and fought with death to ask after the intent of the Lord; that he had meant to perform the duty which the Lord had left undone. The realization came with a rush of shame. In the asking he had betrayed his wavering, and Moses had tactfully told him of it. A surge of color swept over his face.

"Thou hast recalled my trust to me; my prince," he said in a lowered tone. "Till now I knew not that it had failed me. But remember thou it was my love for Israel—oh, and my love for mine own—that made me fear. Forgive me, I pray thee."

The lawgiver laid his hand on the young man's shoulder, but did not answer at once. The growing clamor about them had reached the acme of insistence. The nearest people pressed through the tribal lines and, rushing forward, began to throw themselves on their knees, tumbling in circles about the majestic Hebrew. Others kept their feet and, with arms and clenched hands above their heads, shouted vehemently. Their cries were partly in Egyptian, partly in their own tongue, but the cause of their terror and the burden of their supplications were the same. The Egyptians were upon them! Even the dumb beasts were swept into the panic, and the illuminated beach shook with sound.

After a little sad contemplation of the clamoring horde about him the lawgiver drew nearer to Kenekes and said in his ear, because the tumult drowned his voice:

"The Lord will fight for thee; thine enemy cannot see his strong hand. Wait upon him and behold his triumph."

Kenekes bowed his head in acquiescence.

(To be Continued.)

Dica in Mine Explosion.
Gratiot, Ohio, Oct. 11.—In an explosion in a coal mine Charles Smith was killed, Lyman Chapin fatally injured, and Fred Headley badly hurt.

Read the Want Ads.

ATTACK ORDER OF THE COURT
Standard and Republic Oil Concerns Question Missouri Statutes.

Jefferson City, Mo., Oct. 11.—In the Missouri supreme court attorneys for the Standard Oil Company and the Republic Oil company filed a motion to set aside the order made by Judge Fox of the supreme court in vacation requiring officers of the Republic Oil company to appear before Special Commissioner Anthony in St. Louis on Oct. 13, to produce the books of the company and to testify in the ouster suit which Attorney General Hadley is prosecuting against them.

At the motion attacks the validity of the statute books under which the order was made and contends that it is in violation of the constitution. The motion also attacks the statute on several other grounds, but this is the main contention.

Examine Culebra Cut.
Colon, Oct. 11.—The members of the advisory board of consulting engineers of the Panama canal have examined the Empire-Culebra cut and have gone to Panama to re-examine the district around La Boca and at the Pacific terminus of the canal.

Finnish Assassin Breaks Jail.
Helsingfors, Oct. 11.—Hohenthal, the murderer of Solsman Solheim, procurator-general of Finland, escaped today from the prison here, where he was undergoing a sentence of imprisonment for life.

Fire in Sanitarium.
Findlay, Ohio, Oct. 11.—Fire in the Mackin sanitarium spread so rapidly that the occupants of the building had to be carried out in their night clothes and taken to the ground by ladders. Many were overcome by smoke, but no fatalities occurred.

Angry Negro Shoots Boys.
Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 11.—Angry because of the ridicule of boys, a negro emptied his revolver into a crowd. One boy is in a critical condition, another is dangerously wounded, and a negro girl was hurt.

Danger in the Rocking Chair.
It is claimed that persistent rocking in rocking chairs impairs the sight and hearing, but strengthens the legs.

Allen's Cures
LUNG BALSAM
COUGHS
CROUP

TRUSTEE CLERK TAKES $101,000

Employee of Adams Express Company at Pittsburg Has Disappeared.

BANK'S MONEY ALSO MISSING

Substitute for Regular Collector Receipts for Package, Returns Home to Bid Good-by to Wife and Then Eludes the Detectives.

Pittsburg, Oct. 11.—The discovery was made Tuesday that the Adams Express company has been victimized to the extent of $101,000, supposedly through the peculations of an employee.

The following official statement of the affair is given for publication:

"At 4:15 p. m. Monday a bank of Pittsburg delivered to the Adams Express company at its office, 610 Wood street, a package of currency containing $100,000. Of this amount $80,000 was in $100 bills, $10,000 in $50 bills and the remainder, $10,000, in $5, $10 and $20 bills. The $100 and the $50 bills, issue of the Farmers' Deposit National bank of Pittsburg, were in the main entirely new; some had been slightly used. The $5, $10 and $20 bills were old currency. The package containing this large sum of money was consigned to a bank in Cincinnati.

Substitute Clerk Gets Money.
"This package was received and accepted for delivery by Edward George Cunliffe, who was then acting in the place of the regular money clerk, who was ill. Cunliffe left the office at the usual time Monday evening, and Tuesday morning when he failed to report for duty a hurried examination was made of his department, and it was learned that about $100,000 of funds entrusted to his care were missing.

"General Agent Hiner of the Adams Express company immediately called in detectives and placed the matter in their hands. Later developments brought to light the fact that in addition to the $100,000 missing the bank package containing the $100,000 had not been received at the money forwarding office at Union station, this city.

"Inquiries made at his residence, 314 Lucerne street, showed that Cunliffe arrived home at the customary time Monday evening, and, after changing his clothes, bade his family good-by, saying to his wife that he was going out for the evening and nothing further has been heard from him.

Employee Has Good Record.
"Cunliffe has been employed by the Adams Express company since March 1, 1904. Previous to that time he was employed in the Pittsburg service of the American Express company, the Electric Express company and the United States Express company of Hartford, Conn., and bore a good reputation. He was a methodical, accurate and an excellent clerk.

"Cunliffe is described as 35 years of age, looks to be 40, 5 feet 7 inches tall, weighs 170 pounds, medium build, dark brown hair heavily mixed with gray; could raise a very heavy beard; has blue eyes. When last seen he wore a dark blue double-breasted suit, a black derby hat, turned down collar and a black bow tie. He wears a silver ring with an acorn design.

Smokes Cigarettes.
"He is an inveterate cigarette smoker, and the second finger of his right hand is badly discolored with nicotine. Cunliffe is afflicted with what is known as the 'cigarette cough.'"

A warrant has been issued charging Cunliffe with larceny.

Every detective in the city has been put to work on the case, and hopes are entertained that Cunliffe will be arrested shortly if he is still in the city.

The authorities are of the opinion, however, that Cunliffe left the city immediately after bidding his wife good-by.

Telegraphic descriptions have been sent to all parts of the country and pictures of the man were mailed to the most important cities.

COUNTY OFFICERS ON THE SHIP
United States Transport Is Held at Honolulu for Investigation.

Honolulu, Oct. 11.—The United States transport Sherman, en route to San Francisco, was held here several hours by United States Attorney Breckins and United States Marshal Hendrick pending an investigation of reports that a large amount of counterfeit American money is aboard. Nine men have been arrested. Of these three are being held as witnesses. According to information received about $6,000 of the counterfeit money was passed in Nagasaki. But one $10 bill was offered here. C. H. Murphy was arrested.

Fire in Sanitarium.
Findlay, Ohio, Oct. 11.—Fire in the Mackin sanitarium spread so rapidly that the occupants of the building had to be carried out in their night clothes and taken to the ground by ladders. Many were overcome by smoke, but no fatalities occurred.

Angry Negro Shoots Boys.
Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 11.—Angry because of the ridicule of boys, a negro emptied his revolver into a crowd. One boy is in a critical condition, another is dangerously wounded, and a negro girl was hurt.

Danger in the Rocking Chair.
It is claimed that persistent rocking in rocking chairs impairs the sight and hearing, but strengthens the legs.

Allen's Cures
LUNG BALSAM
COUGHS
CROUP

Allen's Cures
LUNG BALSAM
COUGHS
CROUP

Allen's Cures
LUNG BALSAM
COUGHS
CROUP

Allen's Cures
LUNG BALSAM
COUGHS
CROUP

Allen's Cures
LUNG BALSAM
COUGHS
CROUP

Allen's Cures
LUNG BALSAM
COUGHS
CROUP

Allen's Cures
LUNG BALSAM
COUGHS
CROUP

Allen's Cures
LUNG BALSAM
COUGHS
CROUP

Allen's Cures
LUNG BALSAM
COUGHS
CROUP

Allen's Cures
LUNG BALSAM
COUGHS
CROUP

Allen's Cures
LUNG BALSAM
COUGHS
CROUP

Allen's Cures
LUNG BALSAM
COUGHS
CROUP

Allen's Cures
LUNG BALSAM
COUGHS
CROUP

Allen's Cures
LUNG BALSAM
COUGHS
CROUP

"Good company makes short miles."

Good shoes will halve the journey. Crossett shoes aid, not impede, the natural motion of the feet. They enclose Nature in Nature's own bounds and simply allow her to have her own way. It's the first function of a shoe to be comfortable with beauty and worth as a matter of course.

CROSSETT SHOE

$3.50 $4.00

"MAKES LIFE'S WALK EASY"

If your dealer does not keep them, we will send any style on receipt of price with 25c. additional to pay forwarding charges.

LEWIS A. CROSSETT, Inc., NORTH ABINGTON, MASS.

MAYER
MARTHA WASHINGTON
COMFORT SHOES

are designed for extreme comfort and can be worn all the year round. They fit like a glove and feel easy on the feet. The elastic at the sides stretches with every motion of the foot, making it impossible to pinch or squeeze. No buttons to button, no laces to lace—They just slip on and off without trouble.

Made of Vic Kid, with patent leather trimmings and flexible soles.

Your dealer will supply you; if not, write to us. Look for Martha Washington name and Mayer trade-mark stamped on the sole. We also make Western Lady shoes.

Send us the name of a dealer who does not handle Martha Washington shoes and we will send you free, postpaid, a beautiful picture of Martha Washington, size 15 x 20.

FREE

F. MAYER BOGT & SHOE CO., MILWAUKEE, WIS.

CONVICT SENDS CONDOLENCES

Crackman Who Aided in Burglary Peoria National Bank Sends Letter Deploring the Idea That Dougherty Should Be Called a Rogue.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 11.—That much of the school funds alleged to have been stolen by Newton C. Dougherty were swallowed up in unfortunate mining speculations in the West is the belief of those who are investigating his operations. Checks and drafts, apparently forged on the school moneys and amounting to thousands of dollars, have been traced from Peoria to banks in Denver, Cripple Creek and other places in the West. It is said Dougherty lost heavily in a gold mine which is now in the hands of a receiver.

Through the action of the school board directors Dougherty has been stripped of all his real estate and personal property in Peoria county. His splendid home was attached by the sheriff and a levy was made in St. Louis against all the property he is known to possess there. A search is being made for property he may hold in other places.

A story is current that Dougherty's family is well cared for, despite the loss of all this property. It is said that only a short time ago he made each of his three children a present of $25,000 and to his wife a larger amount. If this is true it indicates that he realized discovery was close at hand.

Jury Awaits Witness.
H. F. Merle, secretary of the A. H. Andrews Company of Chicago, dealing in school supplies, is expected to appear before the grand jury to throw light on some of Dougherty's transactions. It is thought that a detailed statement he will furnish will show a wide discrepancy between the accounts rendered by Dougherty and the books of the Andrews Company, as dozens of apparently forged checks on the Andrews concern have been found by the grand jury.

When the jury makes its final report, the number of indictments will be larger than all previously brought in, it is declared. This will mean a further increase in bail, already impossibly large for the accused. The state's attorney declares that the evidences of guilt are so strong that he does not see how the former school superintendent can escape a long term in the penitentiary. In spite of this, Dougherty appears optimistic.

Robber Sends Condolences.
Join Orme, one of the robbers who stole $5,000 from the Peoria National bank, and who is now in Joliet penitentiary, has written the following letter to Dougherty:

"Joliet, Ill., Oct. 7, 1905.—Dear Mr. Dougherty: Along with Nicholas Murray Butler and the hundreds of other men of the nation who are distinguished in their particular lines, who I am bold to extend to you their sympathy, I wish to say that it is a shame the way people are talking about you, calling you a criminal and saying that you are no better than me, when you have told them plainly that you didn't intend to do wrong and have given the school board a second lien on a large amount of stock which you hypothecated in Chicago. 'I very much regret now that I did not crack that young Schnelly over the head with my revolver instead of Fred Bracken.'"

"Until we meet. Yours truly, 'JOHN ORME.'"

Accept Lawson's Offer.
Columbus, O., Oct. 11.—Former Attorney-General Frank S. Moncett has accepted the offer of Thomas Lawson to represent Ohio on a policy holders' committee to reorganize the three big insurance companies now under investigation in New York.

Ex-Mayor of Boston to Wed.
Newport, R. I., Oct. 11.—Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Mary Honey, daughter of Colonel Samuel Honey, to Josiah Quincy, ex-mayor of Boston.

Read the want ads.

Read the want ads.

Read the want ads.

Read the want ads.

Read the want ads.

Read the want ads.

Read the want ads.

Read the want ads.

Read the want ads.

Read the want ads.

COOL WEATHER NECESSITIES.

Bed Blankets—all prices. Comforters at 75c to $1.50. Underwear—for Men, Women and Children, in fleece-lined or wool. Hosiery—for Men, Women and Children, in cotton or wool. Gaiters, Fannel Night Gowns, at 75c, 50c & $1. Sweaters—for Men and Boys, at 50c to $2. Knit Wool Jackets for Men at $1.75 to $4. Duck Coats, Corduroy Reversible Coats, sheepskin lined coats, and mackinaw jackets for men at $1.10 to $4.50 each. Boys' Duck Coats, all sizes, at $1 to $1.50. New Outing Flannels, in light and dark styles, excellent values, at 7c and 10c a yard.

MRS. E. HALL
55 West Milwaukee St.

Business Directory

Flour and Feed
DOTY
The place to buy and sell grain and corn. The best place in Janesville to have your grain stored. New Mill, lowest prices.

Special Homeseekers EXCURSIONS

Via Louisville & Nashville R. R.

To Points in ALABAMA, GEORGIA, MISSISSIPPI, FLORIDA, NORTH AND SOUTH CAROLINA, VIRGINIA, KENTUCKY, TENNESSEE, LOUISIANA,

October 7 and November 7 and 14.

Less than One Fare for the Round Trip.

Tickets limited to return 21 days from date of sale.

For full information, rates, schedules, time tables and literature, descriptive of the various resources, agricultural, mineral and timber lands along the line, call on or address J. E. Davenport, D. P. A., St. Louis. H. C. Bailey, N. W. P. A., Chicago. F. D. Bush, D. P. A., Cincinnati. J. H. Milliken, D. P. A., Louisville.

C. L. Stone, Gen'l Pass. Agt., Louisville, Ky.

STATUTE OF WISCONSIN—COUNTY COURT FOR ROCK COUNTY—In Probate.
Not as is hereby given that at a regular term of the county court appointed to be held in and for said county, at the court house, in the city of Janesville, in said county, on the first Tuesday, to-wit: the 11th day of November, A. D. 1905, at nine o'clock a. m., the following matter will be heard and considered:

The application of Augusta Wels for the appointment of an administrator of the estate of Fred Wolsdorf, late of the town of Plymouth, in said county, deceased.

Dated September 20, 1905.

By the Court: J. W. SALE, County Judge.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS. State of Wisconsin, County Court for Rock County—In Probate.

Notice is hereby given that at a general term of the county court to be held in and for said county, at the court house, in the city of Janesville, in said county, on the first Tuesday of May, A. D. 1906, being May first, 1906, at nine o'clock a. m., the following matters will be heard and considered:

All claims against Ann W. Walsh, late of the city of Janesville, in said county, deceased.

All claims must be presented for allowance, to said court, at the court house, in the city of Janesville, in said county, on or before the 15th day of April, A. D. 1906, or be barred.

By the Court: J. W. SALE, County Judge.

$33.00 to the Pacific Coast from Chicago—Correspondingly Low Rates from Other Points

Via the Chicago, Union Pacific & North-Western line daily, Sept. 13 to Oct. 31, to San Francisco, Los Angeles, Portland, Seattle and Tacoma and other Pacific coast points. Very low rates to Helena, Butte, Spokane and Salt Lake City. Daily and personally conducted excursions in Pullman tourist sleeping cars to San Francisco, Los Angeles and Portland, through without change. Double berth only $7.00 from Chicago and $5.75 from Omaha. Choice of routes. For rates, tickets, etc., apply to agents Chicago & North-Western Ry.

Half Rates to Los Angeles, Cal., Via the North-Western line. Excursion tickets will be sold at one fare for the round trip, from all stations to Los Angeles, October 17 to 21, inclusive, with favorable return limits, on account of W. C. T. U. convention. Three fast trains to the Pacific coast daily: "The Overland Limited," "The electric lighted through," and "The fast train is 'The California Express' with drawing-room and tourist sleeping-cars. The best of everything. For rates, tickets, etc., apply to agents Chicago & North-Western Ry.

Personally Conducted Tour to Colorado and the Pacific Coast.
Leave Chicago Oct. 17th via the Chicago, Union Pacific & North-Western line and the newly opened Salt Lake route, $175.00 from Chicago includes all expenses, railroad fare, sleeping car, dining car and hotel accommodations. Ample time for numerous side trips at Denver, Colorado Springs, Salt Lake City, Los Angeles and San Francisco. Exclusively first class. For itineraries and particulars address S. A. Hutchinson, Manager Tourist Department, 212 Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

Lake Superior and Georgian Bay.
1400 miles of steamer line practically circumnavigating these wonderful bodies of water and special circuit four tickets via the Chicago & North-Western railway are on sale at low rates. Through Pullman sleeping car lines from Chicago to various Lake Superior ports without change. For copy of Lake Superior folder and full information address, W. B. Kniskern, P. T. M., Chicago.

Derivation of "Sloyd."
"Sloyd" is a somewhat crudely made derivative of the Swedish word "Slojd," meaning mechanical art, manufacturing, work in wood.

Read the want ads.

Read the want ads.

Read the want ads.

Read the want ads.

Read the want ads.

Middle West's Elevens

Football Outlook at Universities of Michigan, Chicago, Minnesota and Wisconsin -- Yost's Rivals Think They Have a Chance This Year.

The football season of the middle west is now in full swing, and the indications are that the gridiron struggles will be more closely fought than last year. For some reason there is not the usual confidence in the ability of Coach Yost to turn out a winning eleven at Michigan, and the other coaches throughout the middle west all feel that they have a chance to take the championship honors this fall. In addition to Michigan and Minnesota, the rival claimants for the championship of 1904, Chicago looms up as an important factor, and Nebraska, which played the crack Minnesota team a 12 to 16 game last fall, will undoubtedly come to the front again this season.

BORERSALL, THE GREAT CHICAGO QUARTERBACK.

The new rule adopted by the colleges in the conference league hits some of the institutions extremely hard, and there will have to be some lively hushing to fill the vacancies with men who have been in the university six months. It is the first trial that has been given to the rule which provides that a man must be in residence at the university six months before he can play on the eleven.

The veterans who have returned to Michigan are J. S. Curtis and Walter Graham, tackles; H. F. Schulte, guard; Hammond, Clark, Weeks and Stuart, ends; Captain Norcross, quarterback; T. Hammond, halfback, and F. Longman, fullback.

The most serious losses that the University of Minnesota team will face are those of Strathern and Thorpe. These men were strong players, and it will be a difficult task for Coach Williams to fill their places with anywhere near as good material.

The prospects at the University of Wisconsin are not considered any too encouraging by those in a position to judge. Many of the veterans will not be available, and as the conference rules bars those who have not been in residence at the college six months the vacant places will have to be filled by the substitutes of last season.

The men whom Coach Stagg, at the University of Chicago, will be able to call on early in the season are Gale, center; Padenoch, guard; Purry and Doona, tackles; Ekersall, the crack quarterback of the west; DeTray, left halfback; Catlin, right halfback, and Bezdek, the powerful fullback. All of these men are veterans and strong players.

CURTIS, VETERAN TACKLE OF MICHIGAN TEAM.

"World's Oldest Republic."
Switzerland is celebrating the anniversary of its inauguration under a federal government, which stamps the country as the oldest republic in the world. The Swiss Confederation had its origin in a league composed for purposes of defense by the men of the three cantons of Uri, Schwyz and Unterwalden so far back as 1291. As years went on other cantons joined the Confederation, some of the latest being the cantons of Geneva, Valais and Neuchatel.

Not So Forward.
Uncle Nehemiah, the proprietor of a ramshackle little hotel in Mobile, was aghast at finding a newly arrived guest with his arm around his daughter's waist.
"Mandy, tell that nigger to take his arm 'way from 'round yo' wais'," he indignantly commanded.
"Tell him 'yo'self,'" said Amanda.
"He's a puffer stranger to me,"—Lippincott's Magazine.

Couldn't Be Both.
"Bridget," said Mrs. Hiram Offen to the new servant, "the lady whose name you gave as reference tells me you were not always truthful and obedient."
"No, ma'am," replied Bridget. "I couldn't be wid her a-tellin' me all the time to say she wasn't at home."—Philadelphia Press.

Iceland's Eiderdown Production.
Iceland produces most of the world's supply of eiderdown, the annual sale amounting to something over 7,000 pounds. Most of this is shipped to Copenhagen, and commands from $2.41 to $2.50 a pound.

London's Water Supply.
The average daily supply of water to London is 218,593,600 gallons, which is supplied to 895,890 houses occupied by 6,892,501 people, making the average amount per head 33.1 gallons.

Read the want ads.

The Marriageable Age.
Women have been steadily growing younger. The elderly woman has almost entirely ceased to exist. If we are all going to live to be a hundred or more, fifty or sixty will presently be regarded as the marriageable age for maidens.—World.

Tact, but Difficult.
Tact is telling a woman what a pretty hat she has on when you are thinking how her gown looks like a flour sack.—New York Press.

Buy it in Janesville.

BORT, BAILEY & CO.

WE HAVE PLACED ON SALE
100 WOOL WAISTS

.....AT.....
$1.00 EACH

This lot of Waists comprise waists at $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50 each. A beautiful collection of fine materials. Many are made of the finest French Flannels; some are made of Albatross; some are made of Voile; some are made of Fancy Wool Waist Cloth.

Taken all together they make a great showing of fine High Grade Waists. The material alone in most of them is worth from two to three times what we ask for the waist.

100 Waists at $1.00 Each

On Sale Wednesday, October 11th.

BORT, BAILEY & CO.

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

The Weather is Different...

Women's thoughts lightly (?) turn to "thinks" of something warm. WARM suggests

Furs and Cloaks.
A New Fall Suit.
Munsing or Lewis Underwear and a Dozen Other Good Makes.
Blankets and Comfortables.
Gloves and Mittens.

To make a long story short we will simply say that THE BIG STORE is prepared as NEVER BEFORE to dish up some of the BEST THINGS in the above lines to be found in ANY market.

We Keep the quality up first, last and all the time, and we ask NO MORE for OUR QUALITY than other stores do for INFERIOR QUALITY.

Mr. or Mrs. Buyer, if you have been TIED to any particular store, are not a customer of this shop, CUT THE ROPE, drop in here and learn what QUALITY IS. HALF of the GOOD dry goods and carpets in Janesville are housed at 20 to 28 S. Main St.

5000 yards of Lonsdale Cambric at 11c a yard.

Unbleached Outing Flannel at 11c. 30 inches wide, heavy twill; 3000 yards, enough to go 'round.

4c Gingham, 10000 yards. Women are fast waking up to the fact that these gingham are worth 5c. All you want of them.

50c a Pair.—The best white and colored Blankets that we have ever put out for 50c. They are actually worth 65c. About 150 pairs altogether.

ARE YOUR

Show Windows Lighted?

If not you are losing over one-half of their usefulness.

Electrically Lighted Windows

Attract trade. ✿ Display your goods to better advantage, and impress the public with your location. ✿ ✿ ✿ ✿

We contract to light them every night from dusk to 11 p. m. at a special rate without a meter.

GET OUR PRICES TODAY
THEY WILL INTEREST YOU.

JANESVILLE ELECTRIC CO.,

BOTH PHONES. ON THE BRIDGE.

YOUR MONEY

GOES THE FARTHEST AT

TAYLOR'S CASH COAL YARD

DRY HARD MAPLE WOOD,
GAS COKE FOR GRATES AND HEATERS,
HAND PICKED CANNEL COAL FOR GRATES,
RE-SCREENED LEHIGH HARD COAL,
DRESSED DRY SOFT PINE KINDLING, DRY PINE SLABS.

Busy every minute. Cash is the customer's friend.

YOU GET THE

Big Ton and Square Deal

F. A. TAYLOR'S CASH COAL YARD

Both Phones, 201.